A witness followed the suspect vehicle to the area of K Avenue and Dobie Drive. Additional Officers responded to the location and made contact with a male subject still inside his vehicle in a parking lot. Officers detained and later arrested the suspect in connection to the Stabbing incident. He was transported to the Plano City Jail where he was released to Detention Staff.

At this time, the motive for the Stabbing is not known and is under investigation. The suspect has refused to provide his identification and fingerprint results are pending. The victim has not yet been identified.

Once the identity of the suspect and victim have been confirmed, this press release will be updated.

The investigation remains on-going by the Plano Police Crimes Against Persons Unit.
