Foreword

Humbly and with full realization that the results of its most earnest efforts would have been inadequate without the inspiration which it drew from the dignity of this building, the patient direction of friendly faculty, and pleasant associations and daily companionships with fellow students, the ANNUAL Staff presents to its classmates this sixth volume of the Year Book.

TO MISS BYRON,
WHO, AS OUR CLASS ADVISER,
HAS UNDERSTANDINGLY AND UNSPARINGLY GIVEN OF HERSELF AND HER TIME, TO LEAD US THROUGH
OUR DIFFICULT YET ENJOYABLE
SENIOR YEAR,
WE AFFECTIONATELY DEDICATE THIS BOOK.

WE, THE CLASS OF 1932, WISH TO EXPRESS OUR SINCERE GRATITUDE TO
MR. WHITEHILL, FOR HIS SYMPATHETIC AND KINDLY GUIDANCE
DURING THESE THREE IMPORTANT YEARS OF OUR LIVES.

From the Faculty to 1932

"There is a time in every man's education when he arrives at the conviction that envy is ignorance; that imitation is suicide; that he must take himself for better, for worse, as his portion; that though the wide universe is full of good, no kernel of nourishing corn can come to him but through his toil bestowed on that plot of ground which is given to him to till. . . . Let a man then know his worth and keep things under his feet. . . . Insist on yourself; never imitate. . . . What is the hardest task in the world? To think. . . . A self denial, no less austere than the saints', is demanded of the scholar. He must worship truth, and forego all things for that, and choose defeat and pain, so that his treasure in thought is thereby augmented."

—Emerson.

ALYS ABBOTT

Alys came to us from the Girls' High School in Boston and has been an active member of the Dramatic Club since she came. Who can forget the irresistible Nancy Blake in the senior play? Alys is undecided as to what she will do after graduation, but we are sure that success will follow wherever her footsteps lead.

DOROTHY ABERLE

In her senior year "Dot" was secretary of the Spanish Club, and a good secretary she made as she took the Commercial Course. Her name has appeared on the honor roll several times. She intends to become a teacher of commercial subjects.

EDWARD AJAMIAN

Music has been Edward's chief interest. For three years he has played in the Orchestra and in his senior year was chosen concert master. He was also a member of the Band. He was one of those honored with being sent to Syracuse as a member of the All-Eastern Orchestra.

He led the orchestras at his middler and senior class plays. As a graduate of the business course he plans to enter the Bentley School of Accounting.

JERRY ALAJAJIAN

Jerry was very active in athletics. As a member of the 135 pound class on the wrestling team, goalie on the soccer team, and center on the second basket ball team he won himself much distinction. He was elected president of the Arts and Crafts Club in his senior year. Jerry has taken the Industrial Arts Course and is planning to become an architect. We hope to hear more of him in the near future.

DOMINIC ANASTASI

Dominic, commonly known as "Dom", came to this school from Boston English High. His friends can tell you what an addition he has been to the General Course. He was a member of the Spanish Club and besides his school work has been employed after school hours. This industry is sure to be rewarded.

AGNES ANDERSON

Agnes, a more quiet member of the class, was a student of the Commercial Course. During her three years in high school, she was a member of the Glee Club, serving as librarian of the club in her last two years. Agnes is rather undecided as to whether to devote her time to office work or further her education in music.

RUSSELL ANGELL

Russell has been one of the best-known characters around school; in fact, one may safely say that the school won't be the same without him. He has taken an active part in the Nature and Camera Clubs and was a member of the middler play cast. In the senior year he served as a very efficient chairman of the photograph committee, and as head usher at the prom, he brightened our festivities. We all wish him luck.

ROSE ANNESE

For three years Rose has been an active member of the Quid Nunc Society. She was vice-president in her senior year, and on the play and handbook committees. She has done locker duty and has worked in the cafeteria. In her junior year she played field hockey. Rose is the school representative of the Junior Red Cross, Boston chapter.

MARIE ANTONI

This young lady was a very earnest student of the Commercial Course. Wasn't her name on the honor roll? Marie or "Mimi" could be seen on locker duty during her study periods. She wishes to be a newspaper reporter. We hope her wish may be fulfilled and that some day Watertown High will be proud of having among its alumni so enthusiastic a worker.

BARBARA ARONE

She's not tall but her sunny, earnest nature makes up for the deficit in stature. For the past two years Barbara has taken an active part in the activities of the Library Club, being secretary during the first half of her senior year. She has taken the Commercial Course and she intends to go to business school next year.

SHIRLEY BAGNALL

Shirley, whom many of us know as "Rusty", took the Commercial Course. In her middler year she was vice-president of the Library Club and during her senior year president. During her middler year she greeted us at the floor locker room. Shirley intends to become a stenographer.

MARION BAILEY

"Mibs" was a student of the Commercial Course. During her middler year she was a member of the Glee Club, and a member of the Camera Club in her senior year. Marion has been prominent on the field hockey squad. She was also on the candy committee for the middler play. Mibs intends to go to a business college.

ETHEL BARRY

Ethel has been a student of the Commercial Course. She enjoyed membership in the Library Club and served as treasurer of that club for the past two years. During her senior year, she spent her fifth period daily in 206, helping keep the attendance record of the girls. Ethel plans to attend a business college.

EDGAR BARTHOLOMEW

"Ed" was an "Industrial Art-ist." He sailed boats in the Yacht Club, did locker duty, and played a saxophone in the Band and Orchestra. If Ed can get as much knowledge out of his preparation for chemical engineering as he does noise out of his "sax," he will have no trouble in making his way in life.

NORMAN BARTHOLOMEW

"Hank", as he was called by the Yacht Club of which he was the secretary-treasurer his senior year, won prizes at the Boston Sportsmans' Show with his model yacht in workmanship as well as in racing. He took the General Course and did locker duty but seemed to like the orchestra best of all. Hank intends to become a violinist.

HELEN BEACH

A picture of Helen urging us in no uncertain terms "to make it louder with volume" will remain in our minds after many other class memories have faded. Helen was a member of the Spanish and Dramatic Clubs and through the latter gained the experience which obtained for her a part in "The Youngest." She found time to play hockey and basket ball and worked hard and long in the cafeteria. As yet she has formed no definite plans for the future.

GORDAN BEARS

Gordan was a quiet lad who never complained and was always ready to help. He has followed the College Course. He served faithfully in the locker room, in the office, and in the cafeteria. During his senior year, he proved to be a valuable member of the Hi-Y. It is not known where this would-be professor of mathematics will resume his studies.

ESTELLE BEEHNER

Art is only one of Estelle's hobbies. She proved her worth in that department by making several posters and helping with the scenery of many plays. She was a reporter on the Bulletin and was appointed one of the assistant editors of the '32 ANNUAL. Another of her hobbies is placing her name on the honor or super-honor roll. She was also a member of the Glee Club. Next year Estelle intends to go to the Massachusetts School of Art.

CHESTER BENDER

Having taken the Industrial Arts Course, he spent much of his time working in his favorite department after the regular required periods were over. He worked on the stage construction for the middler and senior plays. He also belonged to the Nature Club. Next year he plans to work for his father in the construction business.

VIOLET BENDER

Violet took the Commercial Course for three years. She was a member of the Spanish Club. She has not decided what she will do after graduation, but she seems to think that a trained nurse's position will be rather inviting. We wish her luck in what she undertakes.

ALFRED BENINATI

"Al" is air-minded. He lives for aviation; it is his one topic of conversation during the day, and, no doubt, his one dream at night. His interested effort in aviation was evident here at school, for we find that he was secretary-treasurer of the Aero Club. Al shares honors with Stanley Drinkwater for organizing an Aero Club in the West Junior High School. His ambition is to be a pursuit pilot for the United States Air Corps.

PETER BILEZEKIAN

Peter has taken part in several different kinds of school activities. He has been a member of the Aero Club, the Arts and Crafts Club, and the Hi-Y. He served as homeroom representative, worked in the cafeteria, and earned fame as the builder of a clever little model of a Napoleonic coach. Peter intends to be a woodworking teacher and we feel sure that his nimble fingers and wits will bring him fortune.

DEBORAH BLAZO

"Debby" is always ready for some fun, but there is a spirit for accomplishment behind it all. Orchestra, Glee Club, and Quid Nunc speak for themselves concerning her willingness to work. "Deb" did locker duty in her middler and senior years. Next year she plans to attend Bridgewater Normal School.

EDNA BOGOSIAN

Edna has done well in the Commercial Course. For three years she has been in the Glee Club and Quid Nunc. As a junior she was on the class basket ball team and in her senior year she was a member of the hockey squad. She did locker duty and worked in the office. Edna intends to become a secretary.

JOSEPHINE BORGHETT

Josephine entered Watertown High from Saugus. She took part in the Tercentenary Pageant and has been a member of the Glee Club. She has taken the Commercial Course, but she has not definitely decided what she will do after she has graduated.

VINCENT BOUDROT

The fellow who said "Still waters run deep" must have been thinking of "Vinnie." His quiet, likeable manner has won him countless friends, some of whom have chosen him to captain the baseball team in '32. Vinnie also played on the soccer team and was a member of the Glee Club in '31. We say "Bon voyage" to Vinnie as he leaves our post to sail on the ocean of life.

HELEN BRAFFITT

Helen has been in the Household Arts division for three years. She has worked in the school cafeteria during her senior year and has been an enthusiastic member of the Band, playing the bass drum. She was a member of the Quid Nunc Society for a year and a half. Helen intends to enter the Newton Hospital Training School for Nurses.

JOHN BROWN

John has been another veteran of the College Course. He has been secretary of the Gun Club in his senior year and has won medals for expert rifle shooting. John has our best wishes for a successful career.

MABEL BROWN

Smiling Mabel has studied the Commercial Course. She has been an active member of the Junior Chamber of Commerce Club. Her future intentions are to develop patience and become a bookkeeper.

ROSE BROWN

Rose, a very genial sort of girl, has been enrolled in the Commerical Course. She was a member of the Library Club. Rose intends to continue school in Canada.

AUDLEY BROWNE

Six feet two, and always greeting you with a wide-open grin. Audley has taken the Industrial Arts Course. For three years he has been in the Aeronautical Club displaying the enthusiasm of one who will meet with success in the study of aviation.

ELMER BUBIER

Elmer is well-known to all of us. He has been a member of the Aero Club for three years and has served the school by doing locker duty. Next year Elmer plans to study chemical engineering.

HERBERT BUTLER

Activity in clubs and on committees has taken up all of Herbert's available time. He has been a member of the Model Yacht Club for three years, the Emanon Club for one year and a member of both his middler and senior play committees. His recognized ability in art won for him the distinction of being art editor for the '32 ANNUAL. He plans to make commercial art his future work.

ERWIN BUTTERFIELD

"Erwie" has been one of the most peaceful characters in the senior class, and if silence is golden, he is a millionaire. But when he does talk, words of dry humor flow forth to brighten the atmosphere. To those who did not know Erwie, he may have seemed a trifle quiet but to those who did know him, he was a jolly good fellow. He has been a member of the Camera Club for two years. Erwie plans to continue studying at a radio school.

RUSSELL CARTER

Russell was a member of the Safety Council through his duties as locker boy and cafeteria monitor. He belonged to the Nature Club. He served faithfully as stage manager of the senior play. Next year he hopes to follow up his nautical interests by entering the merchant marine.

IDA CARUSO

If the seniors awarded medals to outstanding personalities in the class, it is certain that Ida would not be overlooked. She has won a wide-spread fame for her athletic achievements which consisted of three years each of varsity basket ball and field hockey, with the captaincy of the latter in her senior year. The '32 treasury was efficiently presided over by Ida, and many committees were grateful for her able assistance and advice. With her ability, her personality, and our good wishes, Ida goes forth to enter the business world.

SEBASTIAN CAVARETTA

"Sebbie" is a modernist in the use of color. He is a red-head and liked to wear a white sweater, dark pants and bright suspenders. He blazed his way through the College Course and wanted to fly in the Aero Club. Sebbie, however, isn't going to be an aviator. He intends to enter Massachusetts College of Pharmacy and he ought to make a hit there, too.

JAMES CHAMBERLAIN

Outside of his studies in the Industrial Arts Course, James has had time and interest sufficient to play on the soccer team and to be a member of both the Emanon and Boat Clubs. Being a member of the Safety Council, he served as a locker room and cafeteria monitor. Having felt an urge for practical arts, he plans to attend Wentworth Institute next year.

BETTY CHAPMAN

Nobody can question Betty's social prominence, which she gained through various activities. She took part in the middler play and during her senior year she served as treasurer of the Junior Chamber of Commerce Club. She has been a very helpful member of both the write-up and the picnic committees. Betty is well known as a member of the Boston Swimming Association. Next year will find her in business college.

ELEANOR CHASE

Eleanor's depth of insight as well as her contagious giggle frequently surprised ICA. She has been club reporter for both the Glee Club and Quid Nunc. She has been a faithful member of the Orchestra for three years, and has been just as conscientious a member of the field hockey squad. Eleanor will spend next year at a preparatory school prior to entering college.

MILDRED COHEN

Mildred entered as a junior from Belmont High. She has taken the Commercial Course and she will go to B. U. next year.

DOROTHY COLBY

"Dot" has taken the College Course while she has been in high school. During her junior and middler years Dot belonged to the Camera Club and in her senior year she was active in the Junior Chamber of Commerce Club. She hopes to enter college in the fall.

MARJORIE CONNELLY

In every class are some members from whom one doesn't hear a great deal, but upon whom one may depend for any help or advice. Marjorie has been such a member of our class. She gave unlimited assistance to the candy committee for the middler play. Her excellent work in the commercial department credited her a place on the honor roll many times during her high school career. Marjorie plans to further her study of stenography after graduation.

FRED COOK

Fred was the capable vice-president of our junior and middler classes. For three years he has been a member of the Spanish Club and in his senior year he was elected president of that organization. He served on the play committee in his middler year. The fact that Fred has been on the honor roll many times allows us to prophesy for him a successful career as a Certified Public Accountant.

CLARA COOKE

Clara is another of our quiet friends, although no one could mistake her contagious smile. She has been in the Commercial Division during her three years in high school and she intends to be a bookkeeper. We all wish Clara success in her future.

BERNARD COSMAN

Besides his scholastic work, Bernard won honors on the track team, gaining for himself a letter and captaincy in his junior year. As a member of the Hi-Y and Aero Clubs, and treasurer of the Yacht Club, he earned a place on the list of active students. Next year he plans to continue his study of aviation at the training school in Pensacola, Florida.

MARGARET COSMAN

Margaret's charming manners more than make up for her diminutiveness. The General Course has been her choice while at Watertown High. Her great liking for Spanish is shown by her three years' membership in the Spanish Club. Margaret's future intentions are as yet undecided, but in whatever field she chooses she is bound to succeed.

DAVID CRAWFORD

The class of '32 recommends "Dave" as a model for any young fellow. Consider Dave's activities: president of the graduating class, president of the Hi-Y in the senior year, commodore of the Yacht Club, assistant business manager of the orchestra, publicity chairman of the '32 All-School Night, member of the middler play cast, star on the track team and a whiz at tennis. The Cum Laude Society welcomed David and his super honor roll records into its ranks this year. Next September will see Dave enrolled at Harvard. Put 'er there, Dave, you're the sort that wears!

WILLIAM CRONIN

"Bill" is short and his stride isn't very long, but he has been our running track manager for two years. He is a good broad jumper and seems to like the sensation of being off the ground, for he joined the Aero Club in his junior year. The Journalism Club, locker duty, the College Course, and Hi-Y, prove that he's no shirker, so we're not anxious about Bill's future at Fordham.

WILLIAM CROOK

"Bill's" grin is positively irresistible. We've always been sorry that he didn't continue his dramatic work after his splendid performance in All-School Night in '31. Bill has been in the Camera Club. He contemplates going to work next year.

FOSTER CROWELL

Foster came to us in September, 1931, from Fryeburg Academy. He has taken the General Course and has been an enthusiastic member of the Stamp Club. Next year he hopes to study landscape gardening at Massachusetts State College.

DOMINIC CRUPI

"Crispy" likes music and enjoys baseball. His crooning and witty jokes have caused the members of the Industrial Arts Course many a side-splitting moment which they remember gratefully. Last year, Crispy was vice-president of the Library Club. Dominic's wit and love of music will carry him far.

ELENA DEBENEDICTIS

Elena danced in several assemblies and in the Tercenary Pageant. She was also justly complimented for her performances in the All-School Night programs of '30 and '31. Elena was a member of the Glee Club for three years. She has taken the Commercial Course and is fortunate in having a position with the Mutual Life Insurance Company waiting for her when she graduates.

ELIZABETH DERDERIAN

"Lizzie's" car is probably the worse for wear on account of the use she has given it in behalf of the school. She was president of the Type Club, a member of the Quid Nunc and of the orchestra. She also served as office girl, and showed her versatility by taking part in the Quid Nunc play of '32, also in the senior play. Next year Lizzie plans to go to business college.

DAMON DIOMANDES

Damon can be classed as another member of our "Good-Fellow Club." He has served for three years as reporter for the Spanish Club. Damon has taken the Commercial Course to prepare himself to compete with the men of the business world. We can be sure that he will do his best to reflect credit on Watertown High.

ROGER DOGGETT

Roger not only won distinction for himself, but also made the fact known that there is a town by the name of Watertown. He accomplished this commendable deed when he won first prize in the Sportsman's Show of 1931. He was a member of the Model Yacht Club for three years and he served as vice-commodore in his third year. Roger has been a student of the Technical Course and he intends to enter Northeastern.

JOSEPHINE DONATO

Once upon a time we were looking for people to help sell candy at the middler play. We had rather a difficult time. Then, wonder of wonders, a very tiny girl named Josephine volunteered her aid! In spite of her shortness of stature she proved to be one of the most competent members of that committee. "Little Jo" is going to be a stenographer when she leaves Watertown High.

MARY DRINKWATER

Mary is a very well liked girl and she has many friends. Nothing much is ever heard about her, but whenever help is wanted we know where to find it. She has taken the Commercial Course and she intends to be a book-keeper. We all wish Mary the best of luck in her future work.

STANLEY DRINKWATER

Stanley might well be called Watertown High's "Lindbergh." He has been an outstanding member of the Aeronautical Club for three years. It was through Stanley's efforts that Captain Edson of the Boston Airport came to give us such an interesting talk one Wednesday morning this past year. Stanley has taken the Industrial Arts Course and he intends to resume his study of aviation in the fall.

HELEN DUFF

An athletic girl and a girl who has many interests,—that's "Skippy." She captained the basket ball team and was a cheer leader, too. In '32 Helen was a class officer and belonged to the Camera Club. She has served on many committees during her high school career. We send our best wishes with Skippy for a successful future as an instructor of physical training.

ELEANOR DUGAN

Eleanor's school activities have been widely varied. She has been a member of the Quid Nunc and Library Clubs. She showed her interest in athletics by playing basket ball and field hockey, and by starring on the tumbling team. She has also done locker and library duty. Eleanor's ambition is to become a gym teacher.

EMILY DURSO

Emily was a member of the Commercial Course. She has been a member of the Household Arts Club for three years, serving as vice-president in her second year. She has been one of our office helpers. Emily intends to continue giving piano lessons next year, in anticipation of entering the New England Conservatory at some later date.

MILDRED DWYER

The mention of her name will always bring back to us the happy memory of the three pleasant years spent with her. "Millie's" imperturbable good humor, her non-chalant refusal to worry makes of her an ideal companion. She belonged to the Glee Club for three years and was elected seretary of the club in '31. We feel that she will be happy in her chosen vocation, nursing.

MARION DYER

Marion maintains that few words make fewer enemies, and we are inclined to think that she is correct. She has been an industrious student of the commercial work and plans to follow up secretarial work.

JOHN EBERLY

John has been a member of the Orchestra for three years, during which time he has made the most of his opportunities. He did locker duty in his senior year. John's interest in aviation, promoted by his three years as a member of the Aero Club, has prompted him to select aviation for his life work.

RUTH EMERSON

Ruth's crowning glory is her mass of wavy auburn hair. She was a member of the Household Arts Club and has been a helper in the office. Ruth was also elected chairman of the cap and gown committee. She plans to enter Lasell Seminary next fall.

PATRICK ESPOSITO

"Pat" was an industrious member of the Commercial Course, which he followed for all three years. He showed his interest in athletics as a member of the football and wrestling teams. Patrick's future intention is as yet undecided.

RUTH EWIN

Silent and reserved persons make up the backbone of any institution. This axiom applies to Ruth. She has been librarian of the Glee Club for two years and she has done locker duty for three years. She intends to train in the New England Baptist Hospital.

PHYLLIS FALL

"Pal" is the best word to use in connection with "Phoey." She has been a class officer for three years, officer of the Camera Club for two years, homeroom representative for two years and captain of her team in the gym class. She is one of the very few people who have played varsity tennis for three years. But perhaps her greatest service has been that of cheerleading, for rain or shine during the football season she was up and ready to "spell it out for Watertown." Our Pal plans to enter Fitchburg Normal.

ELEANOR FAY

Eleanor is another one of our mouse-like people from whom we hear little. She has been a member of the Glee Club for three years. She plans to make stenographic work her future occupation. We send our best wishes with Eleanor along with the hope that she may find real enjoyment in her work.

RONALD FILMORE

"Ronnie" was a member of the track and wrestling teams during his senior year and a member of the Glee Club in his middler year. He was always quiet around school, but the quiet ones usually come out on top. Ronnie intends to study electrical engineering at Northeastern.

JAMES A. FITZGERALD

"Fitzie" has done well in the College Course, although his outside employment occupied much of his time. During his middler year, he was assistant business manager of the Bulletin and a member of the soccer team. Next year Fitzie intends to begin the study of medicine.

MAURICE FITZGERALD

Dry humor is "Fitzie's" most notable characteristic. Have you ever heard him imitate an Englishman? If you haven't, you should. He has taken the General Course, he was a member of the Glee Club in his middler year, in his senior year he was elected to the class colors committee. His interest in aeronautics, stimulated by his activity in the Aeronautical Club, has prompted him to select aviation for his life's work. We wish Fitzie "Happy Landings."

ELEANOR FOGERTY

The Orchestra has, for three years, reaped the benefit of Eleanor's talent as a saxophone player. During her senior year she has been a member of the locker monitors' crew. It's strange, the inspirations we derive from the faculty, for here's another who would one day be a schoolmarm. Eleanor's earnest and capable manner will certainly gain her that end for which she is striving.

ARTHUR FRANK

Arthur is one of the most enjoyable persons in our class. He was an active member of both the baseball and football squads during his middler and senior year. As he hopes to become somebody in the field of aeronautical engineering, he has been a follower of the Technical Course and expects to go to M. I. T. or some such school next year.

MARGARET GARABEDIAN

Margaret, a member of the Commercial Course, has sung in the Glee Club for two years and was a member of the Quid Nunc during her middler year. She aspires to become a stenographer.

ROSE GARABEDIAN

Rose has taken the Commercial Course. She has been a member of the Orchestra and Glee Clubs for three years and had a part in All-School Night during her junior year. She intends to do office work.

EDWARD GEIGER

Only those who have known "Ed" intimately can appreciate the versatility of his character. Ed has been a member of the Emanon Club for two years and in '32 he was elected chairman of the picnic committee. Although solemn at times he possesses an oddly whimsical sense of humor. Clever, entertaining, generous to all, he is the essence of optimism. Ed can be counted on to "startle" the world some day.

ROBERT GLEASON

"Bobby" is the sort of fellow whom no one would ever think of calling Robert. His exceptional performances on both the indoor and outdoor track teams have won for him the honor of captaining the indoor track team during his senior year. The other members of the Gun Club will tell you of his ability as a sharpshooter. Bobby plans to go to college.

ANNA GOODROW

Anna is known to the girls as "Bebe". She has divided her three years here between the Household Arts and the General Courses. In her middler year she belonged to the Typewriting Club. Anna's cheery and ever-present smile has made her known to everyone. Next year she expects to enter Wilfred Academy. Good luck, Anna!

HAROLD GOODWIN

Harold is known to all in the Commercial Course for he always has a smile for everyone. He will some day be heard of in the business world for he intends to enter Bentley School of Accounting.

VERA GORDON

We all feel sure that Vera's choice of nursing as a life work is a wise one. She has displayed efficiency and executive ability as president and vice-president of the Library Club. Vera has a cheerful air that should make her an acceptable sick room attendant.

EVELYN GOSTOS

The word "happy-go-lucky" characterizes Evelyn. She took part in All-School Night in '30 and has furnished part of the entertainment for several assemblies. "Ev" always wears a big smile and she has a still bigger heart. We wish her heaps of luck at an elocution school.

WILHELMINA HAGOPIAN

Judges of true worth measure success not in terms of money but in terms of modesty and conscientious labor. She has a way of sailing through difficult assignments so easily and calmly that we all envy her. Her name has appeared frequently on the honor roll. Next year Wilhelmina will go to work.

HERBERT HALBERG

Herbert's activities are not known to all as he possesses one of those quiet natures which usually belong to active workers. He played three years in the Orchestra and the Band, besides working steadily afternoons. During the winter months he became interested in and joined the wrestling team. Next year he will study to become a lithographer. We wish him luck.

CATHERINE HALL

Catherine is one of the more quiet members of the Commercial Course. During her middler year she assisted in the office. She intends to become a stenographer, and a very efficient one she will make, we are sure.

MAURICE HALL

Maurice, another student of the Industrial Arts Course, has been praised more than once during his high school career for his wonderful stick-to-it-iveness. This characteristic made him a valuable member of the football, soccer, and wrestling teams. Next year Maurice will go to work.

EVELYN HANSON

Evelyn was a member of the College Division. In the Orchestra, of which she has been a member three years, she held the coveted chair beside the concert-master. She went to the Festival Orchestra in her middler and senior years. "Ev" was also a member of the Bulletin staff. She will probably be at college next year.

WILLIAM HAWKINS

"Bill" is well-known to us through his sport write-ups in the Bulletin. For three years he has been the only sports writer on the staff of that paper and as such deserves much credit. During his middler year, Bill served as "locker boy." Next year he intends to enter some college.

RUTH HAWTHORNE

Ruth served as chairman of our class colors committee. We don't doubt "Billie's" success in her chosen future work, that of designing, for she has, along with this artistic ability, a stick-to-it-iveness in studies which has gained for her a place on the honor roll, and, of course, such a record isn't exactly a hindrance to one who aspires to do great things in any field.

ROBERT HAYWARD

Here's our Ghandi of Freak Day fame. He has been a member of the Band and Orchestra during his three years. In his senior year he became a member of Hi-Y. The basket ball team of 1932 found in him a very capable manager. We wish our Mahatma the best of luck.

WILLIAM HEENAN

"Bill's" witticisms have brightened the College Course for the past three years and you've never "heard that one before" because they're all original when Bill springs them. This black-haired, brown-eyed Heenan lad was in the Glee Club when a middler and in the Stamp Club when a senior. Bill is not certain as to what college he will attend.

DAVID HEINTZ

"Dave" is interested in aviation and has been a member of the Aero Club during his three years here. As a member of the Technical Course, he has succeeded in being on the honor roll many times. His special duties included work in the office and lobby in his senior year. Dave intends to take up aeronautical engineering at M. I. T.

MARY ELLEN HILLEY

Mary seemed to be forever smiling. The commercial classes seemed brighter with her in them. Mary belonged to the Glee Club and worked in the cafeteria. Next year some business man will have her working in his office. May success attend her venture in the business world.

FLORENCE HOLLAND

Florence has furnished us many delightful hours of entertainment through her piano playing. Besides solo work and accompanying in assemblies, she played several numbers in All-School Night during her middler and senior years. She was a violinist in the Orchestra and was in the Glee Club for three years. After further study in music, Florence aims to be a concert pianist.

MARGUERITE HUBBARD

Any commercial class which has once enjoyed Marguerite's gay presence would certainly be lost without it. This popular young lady was a member of the Type and Library Clubs. We wonder where she found time for both. Success will surely be with her in secretarial work.

JULIA HUNTER

Studios and steadfast, with a firm will, she set her heart from the very beginning on attaining excellence, and success has resulted from this determination as the honor roll indicates. In '32 she was a member of the Library Club. Julia will doubtless hold a prominent place in the nursing profession.

LAWRENCE HUTCHINGS

The Industrial Arts Course was "Laurie"'s chief interest. He was a member of the Nature Club and Junior Chamber of Commerce. He was vice-president of the Nature Club. He did cafeteria work. We wish Laurie success in his career as an architect.

CLARENCE ILLESLEY

Clarence has taken the Industrial Arts Course. He helped with the scenery for the middler play. He is one of those ambitious people who have worked outside of school hours and we feel sure that his spirit of industry will help him to become a good forest ranger.

GORDON ILLESLEY

Gordon's work outside of school has made it impossible for him to take an active part in school affairs. He has taken the Industrial Arts Course and he hopes, at some later date, to go to the United States Naval Academy.

ROBERT INGHAM

We often wondered how the Coolidge Theatre did such good business. Here's the answer: "Bobby" ushers there! He was always eager to enjoy wholesome humor and those who have been in Bobby's history classes well remember "Bob's" familiar chuckle. Not that Bob sacrifices everything to his good humor—he has been a member of the Spanish Club and a valuable student in the Art Department. Bob plans to be a commercial artist.

DORIS JOHNSON

Remember the junior party? The fun we had biting apples from strings? Well, Doris was on the committee that planned that entertainment. The Household Arts Club occupied two years of Doris's time and in her senior year she spent her club period typing. We wish Doris bon voyage when she leaves this year for Europe.

SAMUEL JOHNSON

"Sam's" wavy hair has been the envy of many girls. In his senior year he spent a great deal of time and effort in the activities of the Camera Club. Previous to being a photographer, Sam had been a librarian and a journalist. He is going to prep school and then to college.

LUCILE JONES

"When a feller needs a friend" that's "Cile." Camera Club, Orchestra, and Quid Nunc, of which she was treasurer, have appreciated her co-operation. After three years of consistently being on the super-honor roll Cile gained the coveted Cum Laude key. The club write-ups for the ANNUAL were in on time because of her tireless efforts. Cile will continue her education at Colby College in Maine.

ELIZABETH JULIANO

"Betty," as everyone called her, took the Commercial Course. She has been in the Glee Club for two years. She was a very enthusiastic member of the middler play candy committee. Later she intends to be a stenographer, in which work she will be successful.

CHARLES KALAFATIS

Here is one of the best-natured fellows in school. "Charlie" might well be called the "Little Giant" for during the past three years he has been the outstanding member of our wrestling team, tossing opponents much heavier than he. He captained this year's undefeated team. Charlie's athletic prowess was not limited to wrestling, however, for he was a dependable shot-putter and also played on the soccer team. He was a member of the Arts and Crafts Club. Charlie is undecided as to what he will do after graduation.

ANDREW KASPER

"Andy" is one of those rare combinations of athlete and scholar. He was star forward on the basketball team, captain of the tennis team, president of the Camera Club, vice-president of Hi-Y, vice-president of the senior class, on the super-honor roll three years and was elected to Cum Laude. The study of chemical engineering at Harvard will be Andy's next step toward success.

VINCENT KAVANAUGH

"Vinnie's" outstanding ability as an electrician has made him a very useful member of the school. He has served as the operator of our motion picture machine. The lighting effects for all of the school's dramatic productions have been ably produced by him. He has also been a member of the Dramatic, Gun, Emanon, and Junior Chamber of Commerce Clubs. Vincent plans next year to further his study of electricity.

MARIE KEATING

Marie has been well-known for her ability to play the piano. For three years she belonged to the Orchestra, and for two years she was a member of the Journalism Club. Marie's efficiency will be a great asset to her during her training at the Massachusetts General Hospital Training School for Nurses.

ESTHER KEDDY

The ability to hold one's tongue is a great asset in life and so is the ability to say the right thing at the right time. Esther seems to have these faculties. She radiates cheerfulness and certainly has a large heart. She has been a club reporter for the Type Club in '32. Esther is planning on business college next year.

DOROTHY KILBRIDE

Who didn't know "Dot" Kilbride? This young lady of the Commercial Course seemed to be everywhere at once. Very active in athletics was Dot. She was a member of the basket ball squad and also on the first team in field hockey. Being a member of the Library Club for three years and also of the Quid Nunc, Dot has been kept very busy during her years at school. Next year will find her attending Chandler Secretarial School.

JOHN KING

Our good old maestro! The boy with the beautiful marcel—that's "Jack". That he had a fine tenor voice the class discovered when he took part in the All-School Night programs of 1929 and 1930. During his first two years he belonged to the Glee Club, but in his senior year he spent his first period on Fridays with the Junior Chamber of Commerce Club. Jack is undecided as to what he will do next year.

CHARLOTTE KRIKORIAN

Charlotte has taken the Household Arts Course for three years. She has been a member of the Glee Club for two years and also an active member of the Quid Nunc, having served on the executive committee. She served on the Quid Nunc play committee and helped make the costumes for the plays. She was on the candy committee for All-School Night in her middler year. During her senior year she has worked in the school cafeteria. Charlotte intends to take up nursing.

EDWIN LARHETTE

"Ned" labored in the Industrial Arts Course for two years but he changed to the General in his senior year. He has been a great asset to the Glee Club for three years. Where the fun is thickest, there is Ned. After receiving his diploma Ned thinks he will go to work.

MURIEL LARKIN

Muriel certainly hasn't loafed through high school. To offset her serious work in the Library Club and on cafeteria and locker duty, she was a member of the basket ball squad and the field hockey team. She was also one of the persevering advertisement committee for the ANNUAL. Muriel will enter the State Teachers' College at Framingham next year.

NORMA LARSON

Norma intends to be a stenographer for she has taken the Business Course. She belonged to the Household Arts Club in her junior year and worked in the office in her senior year. What has she done for recreation? She was a valuable member of the basketball squad and center on the senior class team.

CLAIRE LEDREW

Clarie came to us from Hillsboro High in New Hampshire in her senior year. She soon became a valuable member of the Commercial Course. She has not decided as yet what she will do when she graduates. We are sure she will find success in whatever she undertakes.

LESLIE LENFEST

Here is an example of the quiet fellow who accomplishes much. Being frequently on the super-honor roll he was a shining light in the College Course. He was elected to the Cum Laude as a reward for his diligent study. "Les" was a valued member of the Band, Orchestra and track team. In his senior year he was stationed at one of the Scotch pianos in the cafeteria. Les's cry is "on to college."

MARIE LESCARBEAU

Marie was a member of the Commercial Course. On Friday morning she raised her voice in song with the other members of the Glee Club. Marie intends to go to B. U. next year.

FRANCIS LEVEY

"Bussie" needs no introduction. He was in the All-School Night play his middler year. He was in the Dramatic Club, in the Emanon Club, on the senior play committee and did locker duty. He found, however, plenty of time to complete his work in the General Course and be an active member of the Hi-Y Gospel Team. After graduating Bussie intends to enter some branch of aviation.

DONALD LOWNEY

Donald has taken the Technical Course and he aspires to become an army pursuit pilot. He joined the Rifle Club in his senior year and succeeded in winning the rank of sharpshooter. Donald served on the ticket committee for the middler play.

HYDE MACDONALD

Here's Hyde, our National Guardsman, our frequenter of Dugan's swimming hole. He has taken the College Course, and was an ardent member of the Junior Chamber of Commerce Club, so ardent, in fact, that he promised those "Guy Lombardo records" which we never heard at the club's matinée dance. We've had a good time with Hyde. Next year will find him at college.

MILTON MACDONALD

May we introduce our class actor, and can he act! Portraying Captain Absolute in "The Rivals" on All-School Night, he was superb. But he eclipsed this splendid performance by his playing of Richard Winslow in the senior play. In his middler and senior years, Milton was a member of the Dramatic Club. He was one of the cafeteria crew during his senior year. Milton intends to study aviation after graduation.

FREDERICK MACGREGOR

"Freddie's" chief interest has been music. He has been a valuable member of both the Band and the Orchestra. He was in the Festival Orchestra at Boston and Providence, and in the Eastern Conference at Syracuse, where he held the first chair in the trombone section. Freddie intends to become a doctor.

MARGARET LOUISE MADANIAN

Margaret was a member of the Commercial Course and also of the Household Arts Club. At lunchtime her cheery face was seen beaming over the counter in the cafeteria. Margaret intends to be a stenographer.

ANGELINA MAGLIOCCA

As a member of the Commercial Course, the honor of helping in the office during her senior year fell to Angelina. She evidently liked this work immensely for she intends to be a stenographer when she is through with school. Success will surely be with her wherever she goes.

CATHERINE MAJOR

Catherine was another of those girls of the Commercial Course who had the honor of working in the office during her senior year. She intends to be a bookkeeper in the future and if she works as well then as she has in school, we know that she will meet success in the business world.

ZAVEN MALEMEZIAN

Zaven has been an industrious worker in the Commercial and General Courses. His name has frequently appeared on the honor roll. Zaven intends to learn photo-engraving next year. He will be an apprentice in his uncle's shop.

PETER MANOOGIAN

Here's a lad who has spent three years very profitably in the machine shops. As a member of the Journalism Club, he did much creditable work on the Bulletin during his first two years. In his senior year he devoted his spare time to the many activities of the Camera Club. Peter intends to become a printer.

GERALDINE MARKHAM

Although "Gerry" has been a member of the College Division all through school, outside activities, chiefly musical, have claimed much of her time. Junior year she accompanied the orchestra and middler year she sang several solos at the concert. Being the fortunate possessor of a lovely voice Gerry, took a leading part in the well remembered musical operetta "The Air-Master." She plans to go still further in her musical studies at the Eastman School.

GEORGE MARSHALL

"Moonie" didn't have to say many words to let you know that he knew much. The super-honor roll has shown that. He was a member of the Journalism Club and "rang the bell" on a cash register at recess. The College Course seems to have fitted George well for his immediate goal, Harvard University.

RANDOLPH MARTIN

Randolph, our sharp-shooting golf captain, certainly swings a mean niblick. He played basket ball three years. During his middler year he helped with the senior and middler plays in the capacity of usher. "Randy" intends to enter Harvard Law School eventually.

ELIZABETH MASON

Quoth the chairman, "If anybody has any prospects from whom he can't get ads, give their names to Betty." Betty's pep was greatly appreciated by both the ad and write-up committees of the ANNUAL. For two years this go-getter has been the Bulletin's tremendously clever and very much appreciated alumni editor. Teachers must have made a great impression in "Bets" as she intends to enroll at Miss Lesley's Kindergarten School in the fall.

GLADYS MATTISON

Gladys, a student of the Commercial Course, was a member of the Glee Club during her middler year and belonged to the Library Club during her senior year. She intends to train to be a nurse at the Waltham Hospital.

RUTH McDONNELL

Ruth has been an active member of the Glee Club for three years. In her senior year she did both office and locker duty. After graduating, Ruth will use the knowledge gained in the Commercial Course by becoming a competent office worker.

KATHLEEN McFADDEN

Kathleen was a quiet member of the Commerical Course. During her senior year, she was a member of the Orchestra. She intends to further her education by attending some business school.

CLIFFORD McGANN

Another one of our quiet young men. Clifford had a good scholastic standing during his three years as a member of the Technical Course. Although he has not yet decided upon what college he will attend, Clifford will study chemical engineering.

ERWIN McGOWAN

Erwin is a rather quiet fellow, but to those who know him well he has proved himself more than once to be a true friend and willing helper. He plans to go to work next year.

EILEEN McNIFF

This happy-go-lucky girl has an air of perpetual good humor that has won her a large circle of friends. For three years Eileen has been a member of the Glee Club and Orchestra, acting as librarian of the latter for two years. Whatever experiences she may have in the future will be brightened by her cheerful disposition.

CHRISTINA MEADE

Down in the right-hand corner of many of the most attractive posters appearing on the bulletin boards during the past three years have appeared the initials C. M., referring to Christina Mead. She has accomplished a great deal during her three years as a member of the Art Club, and served as president of that organization during her senior year. She has been a valuable member of the Quid Nunc Society and has also been a flute player of merit in the Orchestra. She plans to attend the Massachusetts School of Art.

GEORGE MEEHAN

George, the affable and polished business man of the middler play, is in reality as brisk and capable as his acting would seem to indicate. He was a Hi-Y member and served as assistant editor of the Bulletin in his senior year. "It's the assistants that always work, too," says George. His future is as yet unplanned.

LILLIAN MILMORE

The girl with the cameo profile — that's Lillian. She has been a "reliable" on the basket ball squad for three years, having played forward on the team for two years. The popular Camera Club claimed her membership for two years. Lillian has taken the College Course in preparation for Bridgewater Normal where her all-round ability will be appreciated.

ADELINE MONTUORI

Did you ever notice, — but how could you help but notice — the left forward on the girls' basket ball team? She answers to the name Adeline. This girl did a fine job as manager of the basket ball team during the past season. During her first two years Adeline sang in the Glee Club. From all present indications Adeline will travel with her basket ball partner, "Lil" Milmore, to Bridgewater Normal, with the intention of becoming "un professeur de français."

ROGER MOONEY

Roger has been an active member of the class, serving on the cap and gown committee and playing baseball his middler and senior years. His cheerful chatter has brightened the hours on many gloomy days. During his junior year he was a member of the Dramatic Club. Roger intends to study further in preparation for work in the field of electrical engineering.

STANLEY MORSE

Although Stanley was not so well known as many other members of the class, he formed several lasting friendships among his classmates of the Industrial Arts Course. His quiet manner was offset by his fine sense of humor which is evident at all times. The knowledge and practical experience which Stanley has gained here will benefit him greatly when he goes out into the business world.

HELEN MOSTOWITZ

Helen was one of the charming members of the commercial classes and was the kind of a girl one liked for a friend. Next year she will be making new friends at some secretarial school — and after that? Some man is going to have a very attractive secretary.

MARGARET MULLIN

Margaret, whom few of us have had the pleasure of knowing, has been preparing herself through the Commercial Course for later work in an office. She has been in the Glee Club for three years. In her unobtrusive way she will find her place in the business world.

GRACE MULVAHILL

What would our tennis team have been for the past three years without Grace and her wonderful serve? She was on the candy committee for both middler and senior plays and in 1932, as chairman of the write-up committee, has spent several sorrowful sessions seeking suitable synonyms for these sugary sentiments stating the so-called services of the sage seniors. Surely success will succumb to her superior skill.

JOAN MURDOCK

Just what constitutes a "real" high school girl? If it's good sportsmanship, ability in the athletic field, ability in the schoolroom, and unquenchable good nature, we offer "Jo" as our example. She has traveled with us in the intricacies of Cæsar, Cicero, and Virgil in pursuit of the College Course. For three years each fall has found her on the field hockey squad and each winter on the basket ball squad. She made a very pert, vivacious "Muff" in our Senior Play. As for the future, "Virtue is its own reward."

LEO MURPHY

One of the most entertaining members of our class is Leo. His witty remarks have amused his neighbors in assemblies. Much credit is due this hard-working classmate for ambition which enabled him to finish high school in spite of spending long hours in outside work. The best wishes of his fellow-students go with him.

THERESA NATALE

Theresa is another one of those people who practice the maxim of speaking when they're spoken to and not otherwise. She has taken the Commercial Course and has been a member of the Library Club for two years. From the manner in which she transcribes into shorthand the words of our speakers at assemblies, we know that she is a most competent writer of shorthand. She is making no mistake in making stenography her future occupation.

EDNA NELSON

For three years Edna has been a very faithful worker in the Household Arts Club. In her last year she held the office of vice-president. Edna intends to further her commercial training at some business college. Her quiet, industrious manner is sure to reap rewards for her.

GILBERT NESSOLINI

Gilbert, in his junior year, was a member of the Aero Club. He has quietly followed the College Course and next year he plans to enter some college.

MARY B. OATES

All those in the Household Arts classes have known Mary to be an untiring, cheerful, interested worker. She belonged to the Household Arts Club and never seemed to fail to find material for the enjoyment of its members. She was also the president of the Nature Club and here, too, her merry disposition brought pleasure.

MARY M. OATES

Mary was one of the more serious members of the commercial classes. Although she was quiet, she was always on the spot when lessons were heard. Mary was elected secretary of the Nature Club, and she did expert work on the middler play candy committee. This diligent young lady intends to be a stenographer, and we know that her spirit of willing co-operation will help her to surmount any difficulties which she may encounter.

IDA O'BRIEN

For two years Ida played left wing on the varsity field hockey team and in the fall of '31 she was its tiny but efficient manager. When a junior, Ida sang in the Glee Club and participated in the All-School Night program. The success of Class Day can be attributed in part to Ida as a member of the committee. She took the Commercial Course in order to fit herself to be a stenographer.

HELEN OUNJIAN

Helen has taken the Commerical Course. She has been in the Type Club for two years and was secretary of the club in her senior year. She made the varsity hockey team in her last year and also found time to work in the office.

PHYLLIS PARKER

Phyllis was president of the Household Arts Club in her junior year, and she was on the senior class day committee, but outside of these responsibilities she has been content to support rather than participate in school activities. We hope that nothing will disturb her unruffled disposition as she meets whatever the future has in store for her.

CHESTER A. PARKHURST

Chester found his chief interest working in the shop. He successfully followed the Industrial Course and managed to have a good record. His business ability and spontaneous grin are sure to mean much to Chester in future years.

THERESA PASCUZZI

Theresa, or "Terry," took the College Course, and she was always willing to help anyone who was puzzled with biology questions. Terry's great interest in photography prompted her to become an active member of the Camera Club. Her amiable temperament will bring her many friends.

CLARENCE PATTERSON

Everybody knew "Pat." This genial six-footer ambled his way through the College Course, did office duty, was in the Hi-Y, and was president of the Glee Club, but in basket ball is where Pat shone. That long, lanky frame of his seemed to be a magnet for basket balls and one shot at the basket was usually enough. He was the popular captain of that team his senior year. Pat is undecided what he will do after graduating.

MARGARET PAYNE

Margaret came to us this year and not many of us have had the pleasure of knowing her. She has taken the Commercial Course and has been in the Glee Club. Margaret intends to enter the Lincoln School for Nurses. We wish her the best of luck.

EDITH PEAVEY

The teachers in the college division have tried in vain to develop "Edie's" wee little voice. She was a member of the Quid Nunc for three years and in her middler year she was in the Glee Club. Next year Edie will go to college.

BETHEL PENT

Although new to us this year in Watertown High, Bethel has quickly made a place for herself in the class activities. She served as a member of the play committee and as chairman of the candy committee. She was a member of the Quid Nunc Society. Bethel intends to go to Wheaton College in Wheaton, Illinois.

DOROTHY PERKINS

"Dot" was a student in the College Division. In her junior and middler years she was a member of the Quid Nunc Society and Glee Club. In her senior year she did locker duty.

Next year Dot will be at Bradford Academy.

CALVIN PETERS

Calvin has labored at the General Course during his three years in high school. He intends to enter the working world next year. Calvin has our best wishes for success in whatever he attempts to do.

MYRTLE PHILLIPS

Myrtle has been a homeroom representative, a class-officer, and a forward on the basket ball team. She had one of the leading rôles in the middler play. Myrtle has not revealed to us her future intentions, but we predict that her frankness and searching questioning will be used to advantage.

MOLLY PLATT

This attractive little blonde has majored in field hockey and has taken an active part in basket ball. The Household Arts and Camera Clubs as well as the senior class executive committee have benefited by Molly's presence. Next year she will attend Fanny Farmer's School of Cookery.

FRANCES POULIOT

Frances came to us from a New Hampshire school. She has made many friends who call her "Fancy." She has taken the Commercial Course and intends to become a stenographer.

RUTH POWERS

"Ruthie" came to us last fall from Lynn Classical High School. Since she has been here, she has made many friends because of her charming personality. She is the only girl in the senior class who has studied solid geometry. Next year Ruth plans to enter the Lynn Hospital, where she will train to be a nurse. She has our best wishes for a successful career.

GERTRUDE PRATLEY

Gertrude transferred to us from Belmont High School. She has taken the Commercial Course. She has been one of the willing workers who made the gym work more pleasant by her skillful piano playing for dancing classes. Gertrude intends to capitalize her talent by teaching music.

THOMAS PUGLIESE

Thomas is a well-known member of the Industrial Arts Course because of his model work in the different departments. His athletic activities have made him a letter man on the soccer and wrestling teams and as a member of the Aero Club he helped to construct the glider. Next year he hopes to further his knowledge of the machinist's trade.

ELLIOT RAFTERY

"Red" has made many friends while at W. H. S. He has sung with the Glee Club and his voice has carried the second basses along more than once. Next year Red intends to go to work.

MARY RANCO

Mary took the College Course in her junior year. She transferred to Hingham, but soon came back to take the Commercial Course. In her senior year Mary was on the cafeteria crew. She intends to be a nurse and she surely has the qualities which will make her a good one.

EMILY REID

A reserved and unassuming manner is one of the many good qualities that Emily possesses. She has spent the last three years as a student of the General Course, where she acquired some of the foundation essential to becoming a good nurse. We will carry with us memories of her pleasing disposition.

NORMAN REUTER

About five years ago, "Norm" was going to school in the Middle West. After winning a scholarship medal there, playing in the bands and in an All-Suburban Orchestra, and singing in a national chorus, he returned to Watertown. Here he soon renewed old friendships and made many new ones. Norm took the College Course, belonged to the Hi-Y, played first 'cello in the Orchestra, and took part in the senior play.

WALTER RICH

There are many fellows who slip through school so quietly that we scarcely know they are around. Walter was one of these. He came here from Millis, Massachusetts, in his middler year and obtained a good scholastic standing as a member of the Commerical Course. Walter plans to enter business next year.

C. POYNTZ RICKETTS

Poyntz entered Watertown High from Cheltenham High, Pennsylvania, in January, 1932. He soon overcame the disadvantage of entering a new school in the middle of his senior year, and readily established a place for himself among the students. He was admitted to the Aero Club and Hi-Y and proved his mettle in both. Upon graduating, he expects to study aviation at M. I. T.

WILLIAM ROCKETT

In '30 Bill was elected president of the class and he has been a home room representative for three years. How we worried, when middlers, as to whether he would recover from the mumps in time to appear in the middler play. He was chairman of the class day exercises. In '30 he belonged to the Camera Club and in '32 he was elected an officer of the Emanon Club. Bill intends to follow up advertising and judging from his success as advertising manager of the Bulletin and ANNUAL staffs, he is certain to make good.

THELMA ROGERS

Where's that tennis cup been for the last two years? On Rogers's mantel, and it will stay there as far as we're concerned, because we've given up hoping to beat Thelma. She's too tenacious to yield a game to anyone. She also has letters in basket ball and field hockey. Thelma's future is as yet undecided, but we feel sure that the splendid spirit which has made her so successful as an athlete will help her to be just as successful in whatever she undertakes.

FRANCES ROMANO

Frances was a faithful little member of the Commercial Classes. She was an active worker in the Household Arts Club, and served as treasurer one-half year. Frances intends to enter the business world as a private secretary.

KATHERINE RYAN

"Kay" has taken the Household Arts Course for three years. She has also been a member of the Household Arts Club during this time. The first year she was vice-president, the second, treasurer, and the third year, president.

Kay intends to go further to school in preparation for high school teaching.

ROBERT SANFORD

"Bob" is a rather retiring sort of person, but he has a keen sense of humor. He has excelled in golf and in hockey. Since Bob hadn't chosen his special field of work, he took the General Course to prepare him for anything that might turn up.

THERESA SANTOIANNI

The Commercial Class possessed another quiet member in Theresa. She was a member of the Glee Club during her middler and senior years. She has set a high standard in wishing to become a private secretary, but we are all sure she will rapidly climb the ladder to success.

PAUL SAUNDERS

Paul was a member of the Industrial Arts Course. He is very quiet and thus is not known by the majority of his class. He was a member of the Aero Club and was one of those who helped to construct the glider. Paul has gained much practical experience from his course, and has become so interested in mechanics that he intends to become a mechanical engineer.

WILLIAM E. SCANLON

The Bulletin owes much of its present success to "Bill." In his senior year, he was elected editor-in-chief and all of his available time was devoted to the paper. As a reward for his efforts, he was selected by the Bulletin staff to represent the school at the Columbia Scholastic Press Association convention at New York City. We are sure that Bill's unusual journalistic ability will mean much to him at Boston College.

ARTHUR SCHOEPPER

"Art"—dramatics; one reminds us of the other. Art has become well acquainted with the Watertown High stage. He was a dependable stage hand in his junior and middler years. In his middler year, under the tutelage of Mr. Woodwell, he became an excellent puppet operator, manipulating the leading man in a puppet show given in assembly. In his senior year he took the parts of Sir Lucius O'Trigger, that fiery Irishman, in "The Rivals" on All-School Night, and of Mark Winslow in "The Youngest," the senior play.

MATILDA SHAMLIAN

Although "Tilly" has not been able to participate in school affairs, she has always been an earnest supporter of them. She has taken the Commercial Course and she intends to go to work.

RICHARD SHEPPARD

During Richard's three years in high school he has concentrated on the Commercial Course. He aspires to be a modern Cræsus and assures us that the quickest means to this end is through the Bentley School of Accounting and Finance. We are certain that some day we can all approach Richard for a fiver, confident of results.

WILBUR SIMMONS

"Bill" has been a member of the Orchestra for two years. He earned that "W" that he wears by playing on the soccer team. We have received fine reports as to his accomplishments in the Gun and Emanon Clubs. His election to the Safety Council was due to his excellent service as locker room and office monitor. Next September Bill will enter a technical school.

AGNES SLINEY

Agnes is one of our "tumblers". For three years she has tumbled around the gym with the rest of the members of that unique club. During her junior year she was in the Spanish Club. Agnes is undecided as to what she is going to do next year.

JOHN SMITH

John transferred from Maynard High School and has come to be known among us here as "Smittie." While at Maynard he was a baseball player, playing for one of the twilight leagues. Smittie was a member of the W. H. S. baseball squad. He is an expert hockey player and has played for one of the well known hockey clubs in Watertown. Smittie's future intention is to become an expert accountant.

WINIFRED SMITH

Winifred has taken the Household Arts Course, and was a member of the Household Arts Club for two years. She worked in the cafeteria, sold candy at the middler play, was on the cap and gown committee, and wrote write-ups for the ANNUAL. She will take up nursing after graduation.

ISABEL SOWLE

"Izzie" has been a member of the General Course and intends to be a big-business woman on leaving school. To this end she joined the Type Club in order to get extra practice in her chosen field. Isabel has been a well-known figure around school and her impromptu lectures on things in general, held daily in the lower locker room, have been a feature of the first recess period.

STEPHEN STEPANIAN

We were first drawn to "Stevie" by his infectious smile and he has kept it with him throughout his stay at W. H. S. He has been on the honor roll often while laboring at the College Course. In his senior year he was a member of the Camera Club and on the photograph committee. Stevie expects to study further at the Massachusetts College of Pharmacy.

HARRY STEVENS

The splendid stage management of the middler and senior plays may be attributed to Harry. He has been a member of the Camera Club and for three years has exhibited his ability as a trumpeter in the orchestra. In his senior year he was elected to the Safety Council, and he was a member of the write-up committee. Harry is going to prep school in order to perfect his line before undertaking the duties of a traveling salesman.

PAULINE STEVENSON

"Polly," after three years of successful study in the College Course, has elected Wheaton as her future Alma Mater. This honor student, hockey and tennis star, was home room representative for three years and class secretary in '30 and '32. The Junior Chamber of Commerce elected Polly secretary in her senior year. We have great confidence in Polly's future success because of her charm and ability.

HELEN STEWART

In 1931 by the arrival of Helen, Watertown High received another proof that "beauty isn't only skin deep."

Quid Nunc, realizing her value, elected her their president for 1932. The Spanish Club profited by several of her interesting talks concerning her life in Spain. In addition to this, Helen was a member of the gift committee.

Next year will find her at Simmons.

STELLA STONOGA

During the year 1930, Stella entered Watertown High from Cambridge Latin. Immediately after entering, she showed that her chief interest was in art. She has quietly followed the College Course and next year Stella intends to enter Jackson College.

HARRY STRAPP

Harry, through his questions, brought a laughing intermission in law class where he was dubbed "The Human Interrogation Mark."

In '32 Harry served on the advertisement, write-up, and gift committees, and in '31, on the property committee. He ushered at the senior play, and at All-School Night he distributed programs. Harry belonged to the Dramatic and Emanon Clubs, being vice-president of the latter in '32. Harry will enter business college next fall.

ADRINA SURABIAN

"Shrimp" has been an ardent member of the Library Club for three years. She took the Household Arts Course and she plans to enter the Graves School of Dressmaking and Designing next year.

LILLIAN SURABIAN

Lillian took the General Course. She has been in the Household Arts Club for three years. In the second year she was corresponding secretary and in the third year she was on the executive committee. Lillian plans to go Burdett College, and we wish her the best of luck.

RICHARD TAYLOR

Dick has given much time to being secretary of the Journalism Club and editor of the most popular feature of the Bulletin, the "Here and There" column. In his senior year, he became a member of the Hi-Y. He also found time to work on the ANNUAL staff. His dependability will earn him a welcome at Pennsylvania College.

DORIS THAYER

Unassuming and carefree in manner is Doris, who has been a hard worker of the Commercial Course. She was secretary and treasurer of the Spanish Club in '31 and '32, and she served on the photograph committee in '32. She had a leading part in both the middler and senior plays. Doris will continue her commercial studies at the Katherine Gibbs School.

ALBERT TICEHURST

Since Albert is extremely reticent by nature, few of us have really known him. He was on the soccer team and was a member of the Gun Club. Having taken the Industrial Arts Course for three years, Albert has decided to further his work in this line at some advanced school of mechanics next year.

MARY TOMASETTI

Mary has taken the Commercial Course. During her third year she belonged to the Glee Club. She is very dependable in all her work and she has had the honor of working in the school office for two years. She intends to go to the school of Business Administration at Boston University. We wish her the best of luck.

MARY TRAPASSO

"Mae" took the Commercial Course, and we think she will make a fine secretary. In her senior year she served as a locker monitor. Mary intends to take a business course in a night school.

CUTLER TROW

"Cut" has taken the General Course. During his junior year he was president of the Nature Club. He has been in both the Emanon Club and the Hi-Y. Next year he hopes to go to Massachusetts State College.

LUCY TUTUNJIAN

The Commercial Course possessed in Lucy a student of sterling worth. During her first two years she was a member of the Glee Club, and she has been on locker duty for three years. Her eager willingness to do more than the merely required work indicates a capacity for achievement that promises well for Lucy's future.

JOHN WALLACE

John is one of the silent but industrious seniors. In his first year he was a member of the Aero Club, and he helped construct the club glider. Later John joined the Spanish Club and was elected to the office of vice-president. He was a member of the soccer team in his first and third years. With the training he has received in the Commercial Course, John expects to go into business.

MADELINE WALLACE

To her friends Madeline is known as "Judy." She went out for basket ball in her first two years of high school. She is fond of sports and athletic activities. Sh! We'll let you in on a secret. She reads a great deal. Maybe she will write a book in the near future. Judy has taken the Commercial Course, and she intends to work after graduation.

JOHN WALSH

"Johnny's" easy-going, happy disposition has made him popular with everyone who knew him. We chose him class president in our middler year. He is a fine athlete, having won letters in football, baseball, and track. We are not informed as to what Johnny intends to do upon graduating, but we hereby nominate him for watchman of the Watertown Square Theatre.

DEXTER WESSON

This tall, blond admirer of Guy Lombardo is one of our most versatile fellows. "Deck" was captain of our hockey team, fullback on our football team, and a member of our golf team. Athletics was not Deck's only strong point however, for he is also an accomplished musician; anyone who has heard the tunes roll out of his trusty trumpet will vouch for that. Dick will enroll at B. U. in the fall.

DOROTHY WHEELER

"Dot" has ability in every way and it was soon recognized. She was in the Camera Club, Quid Nunc, the Orchestra; played on the hockey, basket ball, and tennis teams; and as a super-honor roll student for three years was elected to Cum Laude. "Dot," by the way, had the hard and thankless job of being editor of this ANNUAL. Bates is the college which Dot has chosen to attend.

MARTHA WHITCOMB

Small, but competent, that's Martha! The basket ball squad and the tumbling team were much jollier because of Martha's presence. The Glee Club has had Martha's assistance for three years. Martha assisted the ANNUAL photograph committee in seeing that the individual pictures were in on time. Next year, Martha is going to attend the Leland Powers School of Elocution.

MARION WHITE

Talk about your unruffled dispositions! In vain we've striven for three years to disturb "Flinty." She was a member of the senior play committee, of the Type Club in '32, and played on the hockey squad in '30 and '31. Flinty has taken the Commercial Course and she will enter business school in the fall.

ROBERT WHITNEY

"Bob" is another gentleman that prefers blondes — he goes after them with guns. That's why he joined the Gun Club — to be sure he would hit the mark. Bob was a homeroom representative and did locker duty in his middler year. He expects to enter Harvard College.

DOROTHY WILKINSON

"Dot" has worked hard in the College Division. She has been a member of the Quid Nunc, and Bulletin reporter for the Junior Chamber of Commerce. Dot plans to enter Jackson College.

JOSEPH YOUNG

"Joe" is a happy-go-lucky fellow, liked by everyone. He was among the missing during the middler year, but returned to us in the fall of '31. He has been a member of the ANNUAL ad committee, usher at the senior play, and president of the Junior Chamber of Commerce. Joe's ambition is to be a big business man.

History of the Class of 1932

We, the class of 1932, embarked on our three-year high school cruise in the fall of 1929, as Juniors, unbelievably childlike to our haughty upper-classmates, but nevertheless eager to learn. And we have learned! Moreover, we acknowledge, dear readers, that although we appear prepossessing and pretentious to the Middlers and Juniors, that we have much more to learn.

Our first effort, as a class, was a very successful get-acquainted party held on November 1, 1929. The class officers during our first year were William Rockett, President; Frederick Cook, Vice-President; Pauline Stevenson, Secretary; and Rosalie Clelland, Treasurer.

In our middler year, a bit more confident, less awed by our environment, and still absorbing knowledge, we presented "The Perfect Alibi" as our middler play. The cast was perfect, the action of the play rapid and sure-fire, and the whole performance extremely successful. During our second year the play was our only real activity, but nevertheless the members of 1932 were doing the utmost to uphold our high school's high standards in scholarship and athletics. The executive affairs of the year were capably handled by the class officers: John Walsh, President; Frederick Cook, Vice-President; Phyllis Fall, Secretary; and Milton MacDonald, Treasurer.

But our senior year was the one in which we did things! We were the "depression" class. We were experimented on and thwarted in many desires, but in spite of financial conditions and all other obstacles, we made our senior year a joyous, memorable time. Much of the success of the various activities was due to the work of the many loyal committees, and to those terribly busy people, the class officers: David Crawford, President; Andrew Kasper, Vice-President; Pauline Stevenson, Secretary; Ida Caruso, Treasurer; and Helen Duff, Phyllis Fall, and Molly Platt, Executive Committee. From the very beginning of this all-important last year the remarkable coöperation of the class was evident in the matter of work done for the ANNUAL, picnic, class day, and in all our activities. Though not an overwhelming success financially, the senior play was, dramatically, a great success. The class gave Philip Barry's sparkling and entertaining comedy, "The Youngest."

As the ANNUAL goes to press, we are looking forward eagerly to those long-anticipated events: the prom, the picnic, the banquet and that solemn, half-sorrowful occasion, graduation.

We stand now, awed and wondering, contemplating our futures. Our happy, golden high school days are nearly over. They have earned their places among our most pleasant memories.

Good luck to '33 and '34 and may they, as we tried to do, nobly uphold the traditions and standards of this, their school.

PAULINE STEVENSON, '32.

Class Poem

After the hush of the sunset falls,
Brushed from the gold-dust sky,
The birds give their sweetly twittering calls
And the trees give a murmuring sigh.

Then Slumber soothes all nature's sphere
And the Moon silver-lines cloud ships;
The World awaits another day
With the stir and crack of Dawn's whips.

Then she comes, and she travels fast on her way,
For her work is great to do;
The trees and birds and trickling streams,
Even dull grey rocks must she stoop to woo.

Then after hours of willing toil
She gains her well-earned sleep;
For night sifts down in her floating rifts,
As the Moon climbs a cloud-bank steep.

And thus it is in Life's glad day;
Like Dawn let us gladly ask
Our fullest share in every work
And not o'erlook the humblest task.

The trail is brief, oft strewn with stones,
But there are singing founts beyond the strife,
Urging us onward, yes, ever upward
Into restful, calm, yet triumphant Life.

E. M. C., '32.

To the Class of 1932

We'll miss your laughing faces
When each passes on his way;
We'll do our best to fill your places
And your kindnesses repay.
We'll thrill in each assembly seat
As we glance back at the day,
(Which is seemingly obsolete),
When we listened from the balcony.
May we say a last word here?
In your ambitions we advise:
Hold friendships noble and sincere;
Make decisions quickly, yet be wise.
Be always rightly independent,
Stand firmly on your own two feet;
Be self-respecting, law-abiding,
Clean of speech, in appearance neat.
Learn to reward loyalty,
For you'll never regret that;
Try to pleasantly agree,
Yet recognize a fact as fact.
Consider your defeats as lessons;
Hard work do not shun;
For the best reward for labor
Is the sense of a task well done.
Go into fights with your head up,
With courage glad and free;
And take with you the "Happy days!"
Of Thirty-four and Thirty-three.

Cum Laude Society

The Cum Laude Society, founded at the Tome School in Maryland in 1906, granted a charter to the Watertown High Chapter in 1921. Only schools of high standing for successful college preparation are granted charters, and Watertown Senior High is one of the few public high schools accorded this recognition. Mr. Whitehill is one of the seven members of the Board of Regents.

The object of the Society is the encouragement and reward of high scholastic attainment in secondary schools and corresponds in aim and methods with Phi Beta Kappa in colleges.

The following members of the senior class have earned the honor of membership in this society:

ESTELLE BEEHNER

Graduation Awards

WASHINGTON AND FRANKLIN MEDAL

Since 1920 a medal has been awarded by the Sons of the American Revolution to a pupil in each graduating class who has excelled in the study of United States History.

HARVARD CLUB OF WATERTOWN TROPHIES

For the past six years the members of the Harvard Club have awarded trophies annually to two boys — a senior and a middler — in the College Preparatory Course who have excelled in scholarship and who have been foremost in leadership.

QUID NUNC TROPHY

The Quid Nunc Trophy is presented annually to a girl in the senior class who has shown excellent school spirit and has been outstanding in character, personal influence, and leadership.

UNION MARKET NATIONAL BANK TROPHIES

Awards have been made annually since 1923 to students who excel in commercial subjects.

POTTER TROPHIES

Potter Trophies have been awarded annually since 1923 to those who have been outstanding in scholarship.

THE WATERTOWN WOMAN'S CLUB TROPHY

The Watertown Woman's Club Trophy is awarded to a girl who has proven herself to be excellent in subjects of the Household Arts Department.

ROTARY CLUB TROPHY

This trophy is awarded for excellence in the subjects of the Industrial Arts Course.

What Scholastic Achievement Means to Us

During the first year of high school, one usually does not spend much time in thinking of graduation. Three years seems an infinite space of time in which to study and play; and although it is very pleasant to have one's name on the honor roll, it does not seem necessary to work harder in order to do so.

When one becomes a middler, the idea of being an honor student holds a greater interest; and the sight of Seniors' initiation into the Cum Laude Society has a deeper meaning than when viewed a year before.

Finally, as a senior, one realizes the true meaning of honor,—“consideration due on account of worth, high character, or distinguished service; reputation; fame; respectful regard; exalted rank.” The thrill that comes with one's own election to Cum Laude, the applause and congratulations of schoolmates and friends, the happy pride of one's parents and relatives, the consciousness of work well done,—are not these well worth while?

Then, too, there is the future to be considered. Of late years, the attainments of scholarship has come to be a goal toward which an ever-increasing number of young people are pushing steadily forward. It will be for them to grapple with the problems of national government, to confront and master the difficulties and dangers. The responsibility is appalling. If this country is to be brought back to sane, well-balanced ways of living, it must be through the wise leadership of men and women of strong personality, right habits, and clean, well-trained minds.

Aeronautical Club

The Watertown Aeronautical Club has had one of its most successful years since its organization, under the leadership of Mr. Eisenhower, organizer and sponsor of the club. The officers this year are Stanley Drinkwater, President; Alfred Beninati, Secretary-Treasurer. The Club started the year by completing the glider, which is to be flown in the spring. The club has had many interesting speakers this year; among them were Mr. A. Ross, Chief Weather Observer at the East Boston Airport, Lieutenant Kendall, Lieutenant Ashworth, Lieutenant Jakway, and Lieutenant Harris of the 26th Division Aviation, and Mr. Kranner, official parachute packer for New England. Every member of the club attended Ground School under the direction of Professor O'Connor of M. I. T. The club is procuring a P. T. L. Primary Training Plane from the 26th Division Aviation, Massachusetts National Guard. The club made many interesting visits to the airport and also went on flights at a special price, a privilege granted to members of the club and their guests.

There were three honorary members elected to the club: Professor O'Connor, who is prominent in aviation circles, and Lieutenant Harris and Lieutenant Jakway of the 26th Division.

Art Club

The main purpose of the Art Club is to stimulate an interest in the three great branches of art—painting, sculpture, and architecture. Since 1932 was devoted to the study of architecture, some of the club dues were spent for several copies of Hamlin's "History of Architecture". Assignments were made each week to the six members, who made illustrated notebooks. Frequent visits to museums and art galleries were encouraged.

The club members wish to express their heartfelt thanks to Mrs. Randlett for her interested guidance.

The officers for the year 1932 were the following:

CHRISTINA MEADE .....	President
FLORENCE PURCHASE .....	Vice-President
RUTH ROBERTSON .....	Secretary-Treasurer
MILDRED DORLEY .....	Factotum

Standing: Florence Purchase, Effie Peterson, Mildred Dorley.
Seated: Ardys Gray, Christina Meade, Mrs. Randlett, Ruth Robertson.

Arts and Crafts Club

The 1932 members of the Arts and Crafts Club feel satisfied with the progress and accomplishments of the club. Because of the fact that too many pupils were desirous of joining, Mr. Kenney, the able instructor of the woodworking department, carefully selected the members from the entire school. The dues decided upon were ten cents a week. This money was used for purchasing lumber and for a party during the year. The officers were as follows:

MR. KENNEY.....Faculty Adviser

JERRY ALAJIAN .....President

ROY NOREN.....Treasurer

The members worked on most interesting projects, namely: wooden bowls, spiral lamps, modernistically designed tables and small furniture. Small lamps were made by gluing different kinds of wood together and then shaping the result on the lathe. When these were completed and French-polished, they presented a beautiful appearance. Some of this work was put on exhibition and praised very highly. In order to give next year's pupils an idea of the work expected, pictures were taken of the projects. Next year the members will have the opportunity of working on brass, copper, and leather. The club is losing only three charter members this year and it is looking forward to a rapid start in the fall.

Standing: Albert Raymond, Mr. Kenney, Roy Noren, William Milton.
Seated: Norman Abbott, Charles Kalafatis, Jerry Alajian, Peter Bilezekian, Hollis Moore.
In Front: Edward Chevette.

Band

Under the able direction of Mr. Arnold Chick the band has enjoyed a very successful year.

At an early meeting the following officers were elected:

DEXTER WESSON .....	Assistant Director
FRED MACGREGOR .....	Secretary
ROBERT SAWIN .....	Business Manager
RICHARD SHEER .....	Assistant Business Manager

Beginning the season by having the honor of playing at the Middlesex County Teachers' Association convention on October 30, the members have played for assemblies and for home football and basketball games.

Of special interest was a brass quartette in which Charlotte Beers, Madge Howarth, Leslie Lenfest, and Ralph Morgan played. This quartette made its bow with two numbers before the teachers' convention. Another feature on that program was a baritone solo by Ralph Morgan.

On Thanksgiving Day the band stepped out between the halves of the Belmont game with a new drum major, Norman Reuter. Did they step!

The season was wound up in fitting style by the annual spring concert on March 18. In addition to its own numbers the band played two selections with the orchestra.

Although comparatively small, the organization has had singular success because of the quality of its work.

 In Front: Edwin Reuter, George Walker, Edward Riccio, Robert Hayward.

Camera Club

With the sincere help and co-operation of our able adviser, Miss Thayer, the Camera Club has completed a successful year.

The club had five members to start the year and over forty applicants. Thirteen were voted in, and the club immediately began its work by electing the following officers:

ANDREW KASPER .....President

PHYLLIS B. FALL .....Secretary-Treasurer

DOROTHY WHEELER .....Librarian

Each club period a speaker entertained the members by discussing various subjects in photography, such as portraits, table-tops, action pictures, and silhouettes. The members sometimes provided material for short talks.

The club has been busy throughout the year in taking pictures of the different organizations and athletic teams.

The Camera Club wishes success to its graduating members and the best of luck to the ANNUAL.

Standing: Virginia Spaulding, Marion Bailey, William Hague, Russell Angell, Lucile Jones, Miss Thayer, Dorothy Wheeler, Stephen Stepanian, Samuel Johnson, Peter Manoogian.
Seated: Therese Pascuzzi, Jean Gabineau, Molly Platt, Andrew Kasper, Phyllis Fall, Elizabeth Wolohojian, Helen Duff.

Dramatic Club

On the first Friday morning of the school year Dramatic Club members strolled into the room over the lobby to discuss plans for the coming year with their faculty adviser, Mr. Woodwell. They first elected club officers: Louise Mooney, president; Norma MacDow, vice-president, and Arthur Schoepfer to take care of the club finances. It just happened that the members were feeling very ambitious on that particular morning, so they made some specific resolutions. Each and every member resolved that he would do his best to see that a program of some sort was presented each week, to help in putting on as many assembly plays as possible, and to be active in school play production.

Having made these resolutions, the members at once set out to fulfil them. They did very well in carrying on the proposed work. Each Friday club members enjoyed a program, which varied from poetry reading to pantomime. School members enjoyed assembly plays presented by the Dramatic Club. The public enjoyed school plays in the productions of which the Dramatic Club was active.

Even though much hard work was necessary to carry out their resolutions, Dramatic Club members of 1932 will always cherish memories of many happy hours spent in doing something they set out to do.

Top Row: Eleanor Arone, Basil Smith, George Dunbar, Duncan Morgan, Harry Kritzman, Margaret Roche.

 In front: Fred Gorgone, Richard Kelley, Ralph Blake, John Belding, Nicholas Barbarossa, Joseph Brown.

Emanon Club

The Emanon Club was organized four years ago. Its membership is open to boys only. Previous to this year the meetings were held on Monday evenings, but the club now meets during the regular club period. Because of this change many of the old members were lost. It was decided to limit the club to seniors.

The officers were as follows:

HOWARD WESTHAVER .....	President
HARRY STRAPP .....	Vice-President
WILLIAM ROCKETT .....	Secretary-Treasurer
MR. SMITH .....	Faculty Adviser

The aim of the club is to give service to the school at the various school functions. Debates were held on important subjects at different times during the year. Discussions and criticisms were held on school business, and suggestions for improvement were offered.

Probably the club's greatest work was compiling information for the Handbook. The boys spent many hours on this work together with the girls of the Quid Nunc Society in order to have the book ready for the students next year.

1932 will be successfully closed with a banquet and entertainment.

The club wishes to thank Mr. Smith for the service which he has willingly rendered in all the club activities.

French Club

The officers for the year 1931-1932 were as follows:

WINIFRED HARDY .....	President
AUDREY WHITEHEAD .....	Secretary
FRANCES PUZO .....	Treasurer

Since every high school of any size has a French Club, the twelve members of the 2BA French class thought it advisable to organize "Le Cercle Français" in order to improve their knowledge of French manners and customs as well as speech.

The sixth period on Friday is given over to the meetings. These are conducted entirely in French. The club is called to order, and the secretary's report is read in French, after which one of the members acts as chairman.

Much interesting information has been gained about French heroes and heroines, French games, and the way in which they are conducted in France.

At Christmas time a party was given in the suite with Miss Jacobs as guest of honor. Gifts were placed around a pair of tiny wooden sabots, just as the French arrange them. One of the activities in preparation for the party was the practicing of French carols.

For one meeting the club made a visit to the Museum of Fine Arts. Here the members studied the works of the famous French artists and visited the old rooms brought over directly from the ancient French castles.

The club pin is in the form of a fleur-de-lis.

Although this year the French Club is composed only of members of the 2BA class, Miss Severance hopes that students from all divisions and classes will join next year.

Standing: Mary Anastasi, Faustine Busconi, Emma Bishop, Elna Nelson, Helen Chevoor, Beatrice Kasabian, Lillian Carbonneau.
Seated: Eleanor Smith, Rita Daloisio, Audrey Whitehead, Miss Severance, Winifred Hardy, Frances Puzo.

Glee Club

The new organization of the Glee Club began with the school year of 1931-1932. It was decided that more and better work could be accomplished if there were fewer members in the club this year than there were last year. Under Miss Bisbee's supervision the boys and girls rehearsed on alternate Monday afternoons.

The officers of the club were as follows:

CLARENCE PATTERSON .....	President
THOMAS McMANUS .....	Vice-President
SUSAN REILLY .....	Secretary
RUTH EWIN, AGNES ANDERSON.....	Librarians

This year the club voted to have twenty-five cents a term as dues. This money is for the establishing of a scholarship fund to be used in sending a student to some music camp, in paying the expenses of some worthy member in the Festival Chorus, and in buying extra music.

The Glee Club sang before the school pupils in the Christmas assembly. One of the numbers rendered was "And the Glory of the Lord" from Handel's "Messiah". This is considered a rather difficult piece, and the club should be congratulated in its accomplishment.

In April the boys had the opportunity of singing at the Principals' Convention in Framingham.

A few members went to the Festival Chorus, which was held in Providence, Rhode Island.

The Glee Club also continued its custom of singing at graduation.

Hi-Y

The Hi-Y Club of Watertown can well say that it has concluded one of the most enjoyable as well as successful years since it was founded.

Because of the increase in membership of the high school, the club membership was extended to almost fifty boys instead of the usual thirty. At the beginning of the year about fifteen fellows belonged to the club.

A supper and meeting were held every Wednesday evening in the Newton Y. M. C. A.

During the last part of October, Crawford and Kasper attended a meeting of the Hi-Y officers at Springfield. The valuable information obtained by these fellows helped the club a great deal during the year.

The annual Victory Dance of the Hi-Y, held on November 27, was a splendid success.

A large delegation attended the Older Boys' Conference at Quincy.

The Gospel Team was about the best ever sponsored by Hi-Y. The new electric emblem of the Hi-Y pin formed the nucleus of the service, making it most impressive. Pastors, congregations, and newspapers were loud in praise of the team. The schedule for this year was larger than for former years. The boys who took part were as follows:

I Am a Debtor to My Neighbor—Andrew Kasper; To Other Religions—Philip Watts; To My Country—Norman Reuter; To My Home—David Crawford; To My God—George Singiser; Brass Quartette—Wesson, Lenfest, Morgan, and Sawin; Scripture Reading—James Thurber; Prayer—Vernon Jewett; Trumpet Solo—Dexter Wesson. Martin Campbell, adviser, and Clyde Hess, Y. M. C. A. Boys' Secretary, supported the team in its service.

Other enjoyable activities were Alumni Night, Father and Son Night, Faculty Night, Co-ed Night, and joint meetings with the Newton Hi-Y.

Household Arts Club

The Household Arts Club, under the able direction of Miss Randall, has spent a most profitable year. The officers were as follows:

	First Semester	Second Semester
President .....	CATHERINE RYAN	RUTH EMERSON
Vice-President .....	EDNA NELSON	MARGARET MADANIAN
Secretary .....	JOSEPHINE WYSS	ABENIGE BERBERIAN
Treasurer .....	FRANCES ROMANO	ANNA DILIBERTA
Corresponding Secretary .....	ETHEL WEBB	FRANCES ROMANO
Executive Committee .....	ABENIGE BERBERIAN	LILLIAN SURABIAN
	WINIFRED SMITH	FERN JOHNSON
	LILLIAN SURABIAN	VERONICA ANJOORIAN

The first half of the year of the club was spent in making babies' clothes for the Red Cross. Early in the fall the club gave a party to the new members in Whitney Hall. At Christmas time the annual party was held, and the gifts were given to a poor family.

The last part of the year was devoted to a series of talks on "Good Taste as Expressed in the Selection of Becoming and Appropriate Clothing". This was given to teach the girls what each type of person should wear. The girls were required to make notebooks illustrating the different types that were explained. In the exhibition given by the Junior Chamber of Commerce the girls displayed a boudoir doll and some crocheted berets. At the end of the year the money which the girls have in the treasury is used to buy a gift for the suite of rooms in the Household Arts Department. Last year the club presented a beautiful tapestry.

Journalism Club

The Journalism Club's activities result in service to the school embodied in The Bulletin, the school paper.

The object of the club, as stated in the Constitution and By-Laws, is to study the principles of journalism and apply them in writing, editing, and publishing the school paper. The club finds it so necessary to devote the greater part of its allotted time in the preparation of the issues of the paper that little time is left for intensive study of the principles of journalism. Consequently, very few of the club members have an extensive knowledge of journalism, and this limited staff has to alter or rewrite much material that is submitted.

The club as a whole has benefited because of the efforts of the editor-in-chief, William Scanlon, in getting newspaper men to address the meetings. Mr. Drury, city editor of the Boston Herald, and, more recently, Mr. Anson Belding, associate editor of the Journal of Education, have given very instructive and interesting talks. Mr. C. Arthur Wheeler, principal of the West Junior High School, and an active supporter of the school paper there, also delivered a very interesting address on his attendance at the annual convention of the Columbia Scholastic Press Association.

It is a generally accepted fact that The Bulletin this year is very much improved over that of other years. The credit for this achievement is due to the editor-in-chief, who has worked very intelligently and persistently in producing a new Bulletin, modeled along the lines of a city newspaper. He is supported by a fine club body, for whose well-functioning organization the club sponsor, Miss Elizabeth Severance, is responsible.

This year's senior members of the Journalism Club leave a fine paper in the hands of their middler and junior successors. Let us hope that the paper and club will continue to prosper under their guidance.

Junior Chamber of Commerce

Under the able supervision of Mr. Kelman, the Junior Chamber of Commerce has sponsored a wide range of worthwhile activities during the past school year. The number of members was increased to twenty because of the many applications. Officers were elected as follows:

JOSEPH YOUNG .....President

JAMES SHEEHAN .....Vice-President

PAULINE STEVENSON .....Secretary

BETTY CHAPMAN .....Treasurer

A committee of five was elected for each month of the school year, this committee to be responsible for the weekly meetings for one month.

The club enjoyed many interesting programs. Short moving pictures were presented at several meetings through the kindness of Ralph Blake. At another meeting Bernie White, well-known alumnus of Watertown High, was the speaker. Mr. Casgrain of the Watertown Chamber of Commerce offered many excellent suggestions in his address. Again this year the club held an exhibit of the work done by the clubs and departments. This exhibition, held in February, was in Hawes's Electric Shop window for one week, and in Rand's Drug Store window for the following week. In the latter part of February a most enlightening visit was made to the Charlestown State Prison. In spite of the many sarcastic remarks of school members, the club believes it profited by this visit.

The club enjoyed many social activities also. The Christmas breakfast held in 210 was a remarkable example of the law of supply and demand. Gifts were exchanged, and everyone had a most enjoyable time. Later in the year a theatre party was held.

The seniors look back on a very pleasant year and leave their best wishes to next year's Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Library Club

The Library Club has accomplished much during the current year in giving the members the opportunity to become better acquainted with library work.

The officers for the first half of the year were as follows:

SHIRLEY BAGNALL .....	President
VERA GORDON .....	Vice-President
BARBARA ARONE .....	Secretary
ETHEL BARRY .....	Treasurer

The officers for the second half of the year were as follows:

VERA GORDON .....	President
JULIA HUNTER .....	Vice-President
BARBARA DOE .....	Secretary
ETHEL BARRY .....	Treasurer

The club has sold candy at the football and basketball games, the proceeds being used to buy for the library many of the newer books, both fiction and non-fiction.

The annual matinee dance, which proved to be very successful, was held early in December. Among the other social activities were a Christmas party and a delightful supper.

The members of the Library Club thank Miss Johnson for her careful supervision, under which the club has increased in usefulness.

Model Yacht Club

The Model Yacht Club this year has been one of the busiest and most instructive clubs in school. All the fellows overhauled their boats, working on Wednesday afternoons as well as every Friday. Some made new decks and fittings and all repainted, so that by February — the beginning of the Sportsman's Show — the club was able to exhibit fourteen finished models. These boats for the second consecutive year won the Chester I. Campbell trophy given for the best group workmanship. Nickel-plated fittings and sails stitched like those of large yachts were responsible for a better showing than last year.

With only three new members the club was able in March to start model yacht designing. The fellows made their drawing boards, picked their own models, and learned a great deal. No incentive for fine work was lacking after Bostonia V, Mr. Black's new six-foot international racing model, appeared on the scene.

The races this spring will again be held on the Charles River. Five cents a week dues, to be used solely to furnish cups at the end of the year for the race winners, amounts to quite a little sum. Nobody has a good night's sleep during the racing season because the uniformity of the boats and sailing abilities gives everyone a great chance to win a fine cup.

If the fellows joined the club for financial gain only, they would be well repaid, for as much as eighty dollars has been offered for one of our models, but this is not the reason. The chance of working under the foremost model yachtsman in the United States is one not to be neglected by any lover of boats, and the fellows surely are glad that Mr. Black has charge of the Watertown Model Yacht Club.

Nature Club

MARY B. OATES .....	President
ROWENA LOWNEY .....	Vice-President
MARY M. OATES .....	Secretary
ROBERT MACCURDY .....	Treasurer
KENNETH LOWNEY, Chairman , ALFRED DAVENPORT, DOROTHY CHITTICK.....	Program Committee
GEORGE BLENN .....	Publicity Chairman
MR. CASSIDY .....	Sponsor

During the past year the Nature Club has continued to grow in both membership and activities. In the fall the club voted to admit only those who had shown a real interest in nature projects, and to keep the club of a size suited to the capacity of the biology laboratory.

The first meeting for new members was held at the Babson Park Bird Sanctuary in Wellesley Hills, where the club was treated to a steak roast. One other very successful outdoor meeting was held in Sudbury at the camp of Mr. Charles M. Lamprey, a former President of the Boston Aquarium Society.

Since Christmas many members have been busy making aquaria or glass gardens to compete in the aquarium contest, which the club hopes to make an annual affair.

A bird feeding station has been built this year and set up outside the conservatory. Other interesting projects being carried on are a desert garden, a large terrarium, a rat feeding experiment, and the big laboratory aquarium. A splendid addition to the aquarium has been the lighting arrangement, constructed by two of the club boys.

Standing: Chester Benger, John Thompson, George Blenn, Harold Minty, Dorothy Chittick, Evelyn Reilly, Rose Powers.

Orchestra

The school Orchestra has completed a most successful year under the direction of Miss Rena I. Bisbee. The music has been more advanced than ever before, and a great deal of credit is due the Orchestra and Miss Bisbee for the time spent in learning it and the manner in which it has been rendered.

One of the more difficult numbers that the Orchestra has worked on this year is the "Po Ling and Ming Toy" suite by Rudolph Friml. This is a number of great beauty which the National High School Orchestra has featured for several years.

Since there was full string instrumentation, which includes first violins, second violins, a viola, 'cellos, and a string bass, a string orchestra was formed that played two numbers at the concert. One of these numbers had a 'cello solo, which was played by the four senior 'cellists, and a second 'cello part, which was played by the other three 'cellists.

A program of patriotic music was played by the Orchestra, February 15, for the Woman's Club Washington Bi-Centennial program.

At the annual concert, presented March 18, Edward Ajamian led one number and Albert Kander, class of '30, who has helped the orchestra very much this year, led another. At the close of the program two numbers were played by the Band and Orchestra together.

The officers this year have been as follows:

EDWARD AJAMIAN .....	Concert-master
KARL SOUKIKIAN .....	Assistant Concert-master
ELEANOR CHASE .....	Second violin principal
VICTORIA DERDERIAN .....	Librarian
HELEN KANDER .....	Assistant Librarian
NORMAN REUTER .....	Business Manager
ELTON GEORGE.....	Assistant Business Manager
CHARLOTTE BEERS .....	Secretary

Eleven members of the Orchestra attended the New England Festival Orchestra held in Providence, April 24. These included Edward Ajamian, Evelyn Hanson, Elton George, Helen Wheeler, Eleanor Chase, Dorothy Wheeler, David Crawford, Norman Reuter, Eldon Fay, Leslie Lenfest, Fred MacGregor, Robert Sawin.

Quid Nunc Society

"The purpose of the Club shall be to serve loyally this school and community. Every member, upon joining, pledges herself to abide by the established rules of the school, to try to maintain a high standard of conduct, and to help other girls to do so."

The Quid Nunc Society has special activities which the girls look forward to every year. Among these are a Christmas party, a matinee dance, a hike, a theatre party, and a picnic. The girls also gladly contribute to charity, as this is one of their aims.

The activities of this year have been numerous. In November the girls had full charge of an assembly at which they presented two plays, "Will O' the Wisp" and "Purple at the Window, Orange at the Window", directed by Miss McKinney. The officers, together with the officers of the Emanon Club, undertook the publication of the second volume of "The Handbook", which is, at the time of this writing, almost ready for the press, and we hope it will be ready for next year's incoming class. At our Christmas party the dolls which were dressed for the New England Peabody Home and the Massachusetts Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children were on display. The girls also contributed gifts for a needy family in Watertown. On the last day of mid-year examinations our matinee dance was enjoyed by members of the school. At a recent meeting the girls received instructions about knitting berets. They enjoyed their annual hike to Cedar Hill on April 1, and on April 22, the girls entertained their mothers and teachers at a tea. In May they are looking forward to a theatre party and a picnic.

The Quid Nunc girls meet on alternate Fridays after school hours, under the guidance of the Dean of Girls, Miss Jacobs. They hope that the Quid Nunc members of the following years will be able, even better than present members, to live up to Article VIII of their Constitution, quoted above.

Rifle Club

The Rifle Club of the Senior High School is established under the rules of the National Rifle Association of America to promote accuracy, sportsmanship, and self-control among its members. During the year the team has had matches with those few local schools who have similar clubs, such as the Norwood High School and Stoneham High School. The club is divided into four teams, which meet each other weekly, and prizes are offered to each member of the team standing highest at the end of the year. The club also participates in the bi-weekly matches of the National Rifle Association. The Club owns at present two Winchester rifles, and plans are under way for the acquiring of two Springfield bolt-action rifles from the War Department, Washington, D. C.

Spanish Club

The officers of the Spanish Club for the year were as follows:

FRED COOK .....	President
JOHN WALLACE .....	Vice-President
DOROTHY ABERLE .....	Secretary
DORIS THAYER .....	Treasurer

It is the purpose of the club to help its members to gain a wider knowledge of the language and customs of Spanish countries. For this reason the business part of all meetings is conducted in Spanish.

Many interesting news reports on Spain, Central America or South America were given by members. Three committees were formed to file these reports and make a scrap book of them.

An interesting collection of Spanish material was made from books and other data issued by companies advertising trips in Spain or South American countries.

To commemorate George Washington's birthday several of the members made a map showing the Spanish possessions in America during the time of Washington. Many Spanish proverbs were printed, and a drawing of the new Spanish flag was made.

Miss Ricker and Miss Grosvenor are the advisers of the club.

Stamp Club

The Stamp Club has enjoyed a very busy half-year, and there are many interesting meetings to come.

Miss Hamilton, an enthusiastic philatelist, gave the club a most interesting talk early in the year. It was very much liked and the members hope that she will come again.

By means of small weekly dues the club has been able to purchase various philatelic publications which were deemed necessary. A stamp magazine, Scott's general and specialized catalogues, as well as a detector are among the items.

In some meetings stamps were exchanged, and Mr. Adams, the faculty adviser, answered any questions the members had. Mr. Adams also brought in stamps of his own collection to illustrate any phase of collecting which puzzled some member.

A contest was held in which the members got together various stamps with interesting stories and wrote the facts connected with the stamps. Competition was close and the contest closed with Louis Czufin the winner.

At the time of writing the club is planning another exhibit in the library and material is being gathered. Other plans for the future include a club project and another contest, which will be the identifying of the stamps.

The officers of the Stamp Club are as follows:

RAYMOND COOK .....	President
DONALD ADAMS .....	Secretary
JANET BROWN .....	Treasurer
MR. ADAMS.....	Sponsor

Standing: Louis Czufin, John Mansfield, Everett Gallison, A. S. Adams, Joseph Berberian, George Bramhall.
Seated: Philip Wildman, John Fantasia, Janet Brown, Raymond Cook, Donald Adams, Dorothy Landry, Wendell Balentine.
In front: Foster Crowell.

Type Club

The Type Club has completed its third year of successful work under the direction of Miss Hammill.

Operating under the slogan "Rhythm, Accuracy, and Speed", the club has tried to produce expert and accurate typists.

The club socials were held outside of the club period. These socials consisted of either theatre parties or suppers.

Prizes were awarded to the speediest and most accurate members of the Club.

Football

Our team suffered chiefly this year from the lack of experienced players. During every game we were in scoring positions, but lacking the "punch," we could put the ball over but three times.

After the coaches had remedied this defect, we caught the "dangerous disease" of fumbling, of which we were the victims during the last two games. We have had some good ground-gainers this season, including Captain Tom Gough, Bill Prendergast, Hiakie Boudakian and the "Piantedosi-Dwyer" combination. With these boys back with us next year, the coaches, Mr. Ward, Mr. Keene, and Mr. O'Brien, feel that Watertown High is going to put a champion team on the gridiron. Our great aim this year has been to give our teams experience and to organize them for the 1932 season. Also we have had seven games for the second team under Mr. Keene and Mr. O'Brien. These games are very important to the squad as they learn how to play "under fire."

We have had the honor of having "Pete" Peterson elected to the All-Mystic Team and "Red" Gough, Piantedosi, Walsh, Sheehan, and Dwyer awarded honorable mention. "Juggio" Piantedosi, end, will lead the team on the field and Robert "Mac" MacCurdy will be manager during the 1932 football season.

The first team consisted of the following: left end, Piantedosi; left tackle, Walsh; left guard, Simmons; center, Sheehan; right guard, Hertach; right tackle, Peterson; right end, Dwyer; quarterback, Gough, left halfback, Boudakian; right halfback, Prendergast; fullback, Wesson.

Boys' Hockey

Our hockey team had a successful season in spite of the adverse weather conditions, winning four games, losing two, and tying one.

Our boys opened the season with a victory over the Alumni, 5-3. On the following day they defeated Mechanic Arts High of Boston. In the next game the boys continued their good work, battling the 1931 champions of the Boston League, Brighton, to a 0-0 tie.

After having been off the ice for nearly a month, because of weather conditions, we lost the next two games to Wellesley, 4-2, and to Belmont, 5-1. Stinging from these two defeats, Watertown displayed greatly improved form in the next two games and wound up the season with two well-earned wins over Needham, 2-1, and St. Mary's, 3-1.

Captain Wesson, at center-ice, was the outstanding player with six goals to his credit. Sanford and Simmons played fine hockey on the wing positions, and we expect them to be even better next year. Lawson, Kelley, and Murdock comprised our speedy second line.

The defense positions were well taken care of by Captain-elect "Bob" Daughters and our red-headed "Eddie Shore", Francis Egan.

Osmond and Fitzpatrick alternated in the goal, and both played well.

Mr. Kenney looks forward to a successful season next year, for he will have a veteran team.

Captain Wesson is the only player who will be lost through graduation, and his loss will be keenly felt.

Back Row: William Carey, Francis Egan, Robert Simmons, Richard Kelly, David Murdock, Robert Daughters.
Front Row: Thomas Mulvahill, Hector Osmond, Dexter Wesson, Robert Sanford, William Fitzpatrick, Mr. Kenny.

Girls' Field Hockey

The field hockey squad of 1932 was composed of 35 members from all three classes. There were five veteran players left from last year's squad, which made our prospects for the coming season appear very bright.

The team was captained by Ida Caruso and managed by Ida O'Brien, two of the most capable members of our forward line.

After two weeks of coaching and instruction by Coach Sally Biggane and Assistant Coach Anne Crowley, we opened our schedule by playing Belmont High at the Watertown hockey field. Both teams were evenly matched, and neither forward line was able to break through the defence line of the other team, so the game ended in a scoreless tie. The next game was played with Brookline at the Watertown field on a rainy afternoon. A very slippery field and many unexpected tumbles caused plenty of enjoyment for the spectators but a defeat of 2 to 0 for Watertown. Winchester was the third game on the schedule and this was won by Winchester by a score of 3 to 0. The hardest game of the season was played with Newton High at the Newton hockey field. The Watertown girls demonstrated a splendid brand of hockey and held their opponents to a scoreless tie. The last game of the season was played with Waltham at Waltham. Here the Watertown team came through with a 3 to 0 victory.

At the annual hockey banquet Madge Howarth, our very able and popular right fullback, was chosen captain for next year and Victoria Derderian, our varsity goalie, was chosen manager.

We who are graduating wish to thank Miss Biggane and Miss Crowley for the very profitable and enjoyable three years we have spent with them in playing field hockey and to wish next year's hockey team every success in its coming season.

The girls who received varsity letters were as follows: Ida Caruso, Ida O'Brien, Polly Stevenson, Dorothy Wheeler, Dorothy Kilbride, Joan Murdock, Madge Howarth, Thelma Rogers, Muriel Larkin, Victoria Derderian, and Helen Ounjian.

Boys' Basket Ball

Our basket ball season has come to a close. The din of the cheering throng has ceased. The hardworking players may now look back over a mighty successful season. Along with the continued glory they have inscribed in the annals of our illustrious records, they have also executed the same clean play and sportsmanship which Coach Ward's charges have always maintained in the past, and which will ever be an incentive to those who are to follow.

We opened our season by a heated conflict with the Alumni and defeated them, 33-32.

Next we invaded Newton to take them by a score of 30-11.

Needham went down before an onslaught with a score of 37-20.

Our traditional opponent, Belmont, gave way to our peppy offense, which tallied 51-10.

We next repeated a victory on our Alumni friends by 29-23.

The Lynn English five took us on our own floor, 29-15.

Up from the waterfront came Winthrop to be checked by a renewed attack. Here we chalked up 22 to their 18 points.

Our ever-soaring spirit crushed Needham in their return attempt by 59-25.

Again Winthrop fell before the Red and Black, 20-9.

The shoe-city boys from Brockton kicked a hole in our almost perfect record by their 24 points to our 16.

Our northern neighbors, Belmont, failed to stage the proverbial "comeback". A 46-11 win was all ours.

Norwood was defeated by us in a 29-21 game.

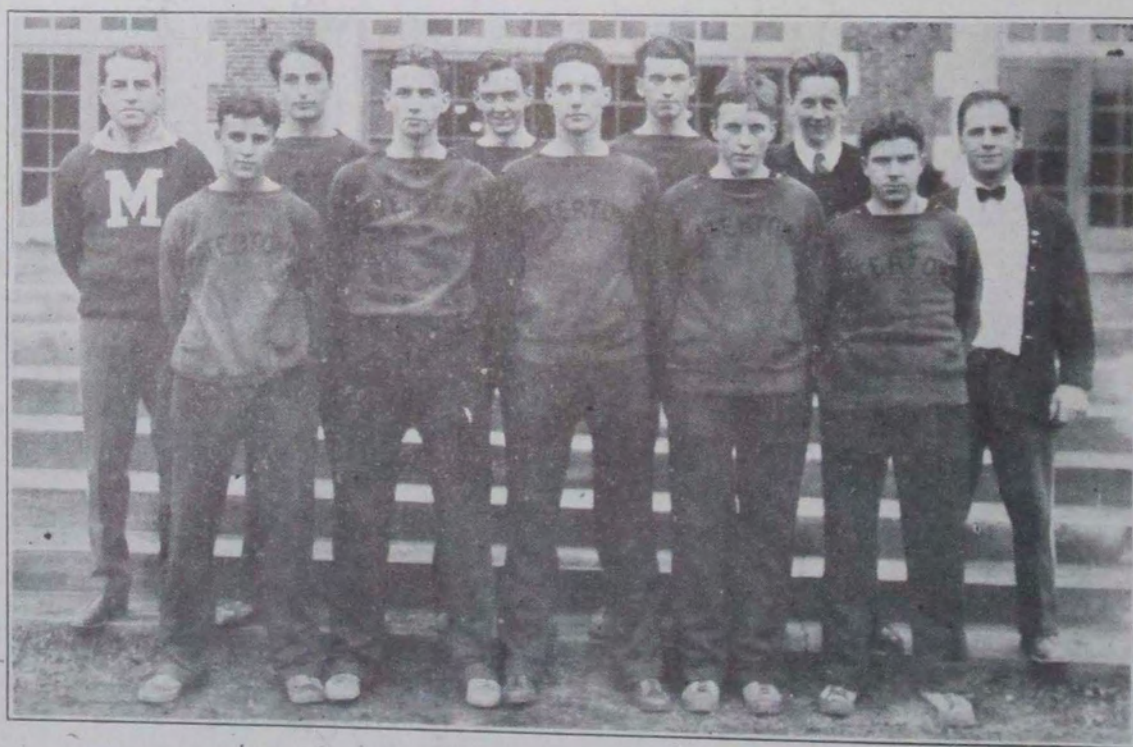

Back came the shoemakers to take the bacon way down home to Brockton, 24-16.

The Newtonites fell once more, 31-13.

The boys from Lynn topped us again by a score of 18-11.

The Minutemen failed to stop our finals. They were held at 34-21.

Medford defeated us in the closing game, 24-17.

Girls' Basket Ball

In December the girls began practice for another season of basket ball under the supervision of Miss Sally Biggane and Miss Anne Crowley. About 70 girls reported for practice, which certainly goes to show that basket ball is a popular sport among the Watertown girls. After the best had been chosen from these, squad practice began in earnest.

This year's team was captained by Helen Duff and managed by Adeline Montuori. The varsity team consisted of Helen Duff, Ida Caruso, Helen Beach — guards; Lillian Milmore, Adeline Montuori, Myrtle Phillips — forwards; Virginia Freethy, Norma Larson, Marie Linehan, and Muriel Larkin—centers; these girls received first-team letters.

The first game with the Alumnae proved a defeat for the Watertown girls, with a score of 17-24. At the next game with Wellesley at Wellesley, class games were played between the Juniors, Middlers, and Seniors. The Watertown Juniors defeated the Wellesley Juniors, 17-12; the Middlers were defeated by the Wellesley Middlers, 6-9; and the Seniors defeated the Wellesley Seniors, 16-3.

A game with Melrose followed. The first team, after a closely fought game, was defeated, 19-17. The Watertown seconds defeated the Melrose seconds, 38-10. A varsity game with Wellesley was then played at Watertown, and this resulted in a victory for both the first and second teams of Watertown, 26-13, 20-6, respectively. Class games with Newton was the next event on the schedule, and the Newton Seniors defeated the Watertown Seniors, 35-16. The Watertown Middlers held the Newton Juniors to a 12-12 tie, and the Watertown Juniors defeated the Newton Sophomores, 32-18.

Medford High was the last game, and easy victories were scored by Watertown's first and second teams, the scores being 41-16 and 47-11.

During the entire season Watertown made a total of 305 points against our opponents' 166. Lillian Milmore, our first team forward, was high scorer for the season.

At the basket ball banquet, April 5, Virginia Freethy was elected captain for the coming year and Marie Linehan, manager.

Top: Dorothy Chittick, Norma Larson, Lillian Milmore, Muriel Larkin, Myrtle Phillips.
Middle: Victoria Derderian, Lillian Weeden, Helen Beach, Elizabeth Woiohonian, Audrey Whitehead, Italia Caruso, Emma Bishop, Madge Howarth.
In front: Miss Biggane, Marie Linehan, Virginia Freethy, Helen Duff, Adeline Montouri, Joan Murdock, Ida Caruso.

Indoor Track

The indoor track team completed its season on February 27 at the Boston Garden in the State Championship Meet by finishing fourth in Class B. The team had a fairly successful season. Although it won only one of four dual meets, it placed fourth at the Northeastern Interscholastic Track Meet, and tied for ninth at the Andover Interscholastic Meet.

The team was again without a board track and had to use the corridors and gym for practice. However, some of the boys took advantage of the opportunity to practice at the Briggs Cage, Harvard.

Robert Gleason, 600 yarder, hurdler, and relay runner, captained the team. The manager was again William Cronin, and the coaching reins were held at first by R. Glenn Smith, then turned over to Thomas O'Brien, both members of the faculty.

Watertown's only 1932 State Champion was David Crawford, who won the Class B 45-yard hurdles and, in so doing, broke the East Armory record.

The relay team, composed of Gleason, Fiske, Milton, and Thurber, defeated Arlington at the Northeastern Interscholastics in their heat and received third in the final. At Andover, with Bussey in place of Thurber, the team was disqualified, and at the State Meet finished third in the final, defeating Arlington and Quincy in the trial.

David Crawford was high scorer with 36 points, while Bob Gleason was second with 27. Dave was one of the three best hurdlers in the state, and Bob was a fine 600 yarder. Jimmie Thurber, who left early in the season for Bridgeton Academy, was without a peer in the 1000-yard ranks, and was still undefeated after the Northeastern meet.

Top: Mr. O'Brien, Reginald Crocker, John Rote, Harry Fiske, Edwin Reuter, Elliot Raftery, Donald Boylan, Mr. Smith.
 Middle: Charles Kalafatis, Ralph Simonetti, Ralph Forte, Vito Cirillo, William Cronin, Emil Weretelnick, George Bramhall, Adolph Piantedosi, Vincent Boudrot, Joseph Raymond.
 Seated: John Mangold, Theodore Bussey, Alan Fisk, Joseph Golden, Robert Gleason, William Milton, David Crawford, Richard Clapp, George Blenn.

Outdoor Track

The outdoor track team isn't looking forward to so successful a season as it enjoyed last spring. The graduation of several of last year's State Meet and Harvard Interscholastic champions has weakened the team considerably. Those who are expected to score in their special events this season are Captain Bill Milton in the dashes and relay; Bob Gleason in the quarter-mile and distance events; Dave Crawford, hurdles; Allan Fiske, high jump; Bill Cronin, broad jump; Dick Clapp, half-mile; Ted Bussey, Jack Mangold, dashes and relay; George Blenn, Charlie Kalafatis and Sonny Sheehan in the shot put; Johnny Walsh, broad jump; Ralph Forte, dashes and Jug Piantedosi in the half mile.

Mr. O'Brien is coach, and Mr. Smith is faculty adviser.

The schedule is as follows:

- Saturday, May 14. Harvard Interscholastics.
- Tuesday, May 17. Belmont at Watertown.
- Friday, May 20. Mystic Valley at M. I. T. field.
- Tuesday, May 24. Quincy at Watertown.
- Monday, May 30. Brown Interscholastics at Providence.

Wrestling

The interest in wrestling has increased greatly during this past year, and a large number of candidates tried out. Mr. Smith was again in charge of the boys.

Led by the popular Charlie Kalafatis, the team made a fine showing on the mat, winning matches from Weymouth, Tufts Freshmen, and Browne and Nichols. Quincy and Needham gained victories.

Captain Kalafatis was the most consistent scorer. Captain-elect Carmen De Giso was always dependable. Tommy Pugliese was another veteran of three years, as was Maurice Hall.

A number of new men made the squad this year: Myles King, Henry Paolera, Dominic Guzzetti, and Peter Tsolas.

Soccer

The soccer team, in the third year of its organization, had a very successful season. A large squad of boys reported to Coach Craig for the first practice session, and practice was soon in full swing.

The team, after getting off to a poor start, won five and tied one of its last six games. This winning surge was climaxed by a victory over the strong St. Mark's Prep team and a decisive win over our traditional rivals, Belmont.

There will be eleven letter men back for the 1932 season and the team should meet with much success in the newly-formed soccer league.

The following received letters:

Seniors: Jerry Alajajian, Charles Kalafatis, Thomas Pugliese, and John Wallace.

Middlers: Earl Igoe, Carmen DeGiso, Alfred Raeke, and Hector Osmond.

Juniors: John Ovoian, John Giordano, Lloyd Peacock, Ralph Forte, Tony Mantenuto, and Pizant Arslanian.

Boys' Tennis Team

The tennis team has played no matches up to the time of this writing, but looks forward to a successful season. With three veterans to fill the first three positions, the prospects are good.

Andrew Kasper leads the team and plays in the number one position. In number two position is David Crawford, and number three is Phillip Watts. The remaining three positions are open at present, but the most promising candidates are John Koumjian, George Singiser, and George Dunbar. The team is being coached by Mr. Kenney and managed by Joseph Golden.

The team is a member of the Suburban Tennis League and plays ten league matches. One outside match, with the Newton second varsity, has been arranged. Each match consists of three singles and two doubles games.

Girls' Tennis

The girls' tennis team, which consisted of eight members, mainly Seniors, started indoor practice the first of April, and outdoor practice the first of May. After three weeks of the necessary instruction by Miss Sally Biggane and Miss Anne Crowley, the team was all set to begin its schedule. The home games were played at the Watertown Victory Field courts, and each game consisted of three singles and two doubles matches. All the members had three years of tennis instruction to their credit, and this year's team proved to be one of the most successful Watertown High has ever produced.

The schedule was as follows:

May	17	Waltham at Watertown
May	24	Needham at Watertown
May	26	Belmont at Belmont
May	31	Winthrop at Winthrop
June	2	Newton at Watertown
June	10	Concord at Watertown

Golf

Golf started off early this year. Twenty candidates tried out, and the following team resulted: captain, Randolph Martin; playing manager, Robert MacCurdy; Dexter Wesson, Robert Sanford, Virgil Curry, Leo Martin, Edward Martin; and two spares, Charles Phillips and John Keating. We have used the Oakley Country Club links. In our first home match we defeated Waltham, eleven and one-half to one-half. Our complete schedule includes matches with Newton, Waltham, Arlington, Dedham, Lexington, Norwood, Woburn, and Worcester.

We shall lose three men by graduation, but we hope to receive many candidates next year.

Standing: Mr. Keene, Virgil Curry, Raymond Martin, Leo Martin, Edward Martin, Robert MacCurdy.
Seated: Robert Sanford, Randolph Martin, Dexter Wesson.

Baseball

The Watertown High baseball nine, under the leadership of Captain "Vin" Boudrot, is looking forward to another Mystic Valley League championship. The team has seven out of the nine veterans of last year's championship outfit, including its star twirler, Joe Dwyer. He will have to shoulder the full brunt of the pitching assignment, because of the graduation of last year's pitchers. The regular line-up is as follows: Dwyer, pitcher; Gough, catcher; Bond, first base; Lavrakas, second base; Daughters, shortstop; Prendergast, third base; Boudrot, left field; Zacheus or Guidrey, center field; Boudakian, right field. Paul Toscano, a Junior, will act as sub-pitcher to Dwyer. The team has thirteen games on schedule, with one open date on June 2. Ten out of the thirteen games are league affairs.

Top: Charles English, Mr. Keene, William Prendergast, Paul Toscano, Robert Daughters, Joseph Dwyer, Hiakie Boudakian, Mr. Ward.
Bottom: Robert Bond, John Lavrakas, Joseph Guidrey, Vincent Boudrot, Edward Zacheus, Thomas Gough.
