

PIMA COUNTY, ARIZONA BOARD OF SUPERVISORS POLICY

Subject: Pima County Public Library – Customer Code of Conduct Policy	Policy Number	Page
	D 32.6	Page 1 of 6

PURPOSE:

This policy is intended to:

- Protect the rights and safety of Pima County Public Library (PCPL) customers, volunteers and staff;
- Protect the library's materials, equipment, facilities and grounds; and
- Ensure that access to Library facilities, programs, or services is not negatively impacted by behaviors that create an environment that is unsafe, disruptive, or not conducive to the Library's mission.

POLICY:

Pima County Public Library facilities are open to people of all ages and backgrounds. Customers are encouraged to use the library to:

- Discover shared spaces and community resources
- Connect with other community members and exchange information in its diverse forms
- Engage in collaborative programming across a variety of interests
- Expand knowledge and skills on a variety of topics for fun, education, job growth, and everyday living

OUR COMMITMENT TO CUSTOMERS:

PCPL is committed to create an environment where all people treat each other with dignity and respect. We strive to be an institution where people of every race, ethnicity, religion, gender, sexual orientation, age, ability, education level and socioeconomic class feel seen, valued, safe and well served. In pursuit of these goals, when we are resolving code of conduct violations, we will whenever possible:

- Make considerate requests
- Provide reasons why the request is being made
- Offer options when available
- Focus our requests on current incidents or behaviors without bias from previous, resolved events

In accordance with our goal to provide a safe, inclusive, respectful, and welcoming environment that also protects privacy for all library users, we request your compliance with the following guidelines.

2.11. Bringing into the library, or attempting to place or store in the library any item(s) that interferes with library operations; creates a safety hazard; denies space to other customers; blocks aisles; blocks access to or exit from the building; is unsanitary or foul-smelling; or has a total dimension in excess of 55-inches (excluding items necessary for medical purposes or child care).

2.12. Leaving packages, backpacks, luggage, or any other personal items unattended. Unattended items are subject to removal without notice.

2.13. Failing to comply with a library staff member's request to stop a behavior prohibited in this Code of Conduct or any other library or County policy.

2.14. Any other behavior that seriously disrupts library operations or the use of the library by others.

3. Use and preservation of library materials and property. The following actions or behaviors are not allowed on Library property:

3.1. Manipulating or bypassing Library systems and procedures, such as those that regulate computer use.

3.2. Unplugging library equipment.

3.3. Consuming food or beverages in a manner that creates an unclean environment, disrupts the activities of staff or other customers; disrupts the enjoyment of the library by other customers; or soils, damages, or in any way harms Library materials, equipment and property.

3.4. Consuming food at computer workstations.

3.5. Failure to clean up any residue, wrappings, or spills after the consumption of food or beverages.

3.6. Using furniture for anything other than its intended purpose (e.g. a table is not a footstool).

3.7. Engaging in activities not reasonably associated with use of a public library.

4. Children in the Library

Pima County Libraries are not licensed childcare facilities under A.R.S. 36-881 et. seq. Children are expected to conduct themselves in a manner that does not violate the code of conduct or disrupt other customers. Library staff members cannot serve in place of parents or guardians and the library is not responsible for any consequences of a parent's or guardian's neglect of their responsibilities.

Additionally, the following actions or behaviors are not allowed on library property:

- 4.1. Disciplining a child in a manner that injures the child or disrupts other customers.
- 4.2. Leaving young children unsupervised or ignoring their disruptive behaviors.
- 4.3. Adults using the children’s or teen’s areas without a child/teen or need for children’s or teen’s material.

ENFORCEMENT:

The rules set forth above are not intended to limit PCPL from taking action to ensure safety, security, and excellent customer service. Any behavior that is disruptive or that inhibits or prevents PCPL from providing a safe environment or accomplishing its mission may result in the denial of access to facilities and/or services.

These rules will be enforced evenly, consistently, and fairly. Library staff and security personnel will intervene to stop prohibited activities and behaviors. Law enforcement will be contacted if any customer engages in what is believed to be unlawful or dangerous behavior.

CONSEQUENCES OF NON-COMPLIANCE:

Failure to comply with this and Library’s other established policies may result in:

1. The immediate removal of the customer from the premises; and/or
2. Suspending the customer’s access to Library facilities for up to one year; and/or
3. Denying access to specific services and/or programs.

SUSPENSION OF LIBRARY PRIVILEGES:

The person in charge may immediately suspend a customer’s Library privileges or access to activities, services or facilities at all PCPL locations if the situation is a serious offense and constitutes a violation of PCPL policies. Examples of serious offenses include, but are not limited to: verbal abuse; violence; threatening behaviors; sexual harassment; vandalism; drug sale, attempted sale or use; theft or attempted theft; physical harassment; sexual misconduct; or any behaviors that threaten the safety and security of customers or staff. The librarian may also issue suspensions for repeated violations of library policies.

A suspension may be appealed in writing, email or by phone to the Library Director or designee within 10 calendar days of the date the suspension is issued. The appeal must clearly state why the customer believes that the privileges should be restored.

The Director, or a designee, will review and respond to the appeal in writing, by email or phone within 10 business days of the date the appeal was received. The suspension remains in effect until the Director has reviewed the appeal and issued a decision.

The decision of the Director is final.

If the suspended person returns to the library before the suspension period has expired, and if they refuse to leave the library when asked to do so, library staff may call the police to have the person removed and or prosecuted for criminal trespass.

A suspension from any one library location will apply to all library locations.
