Foreword

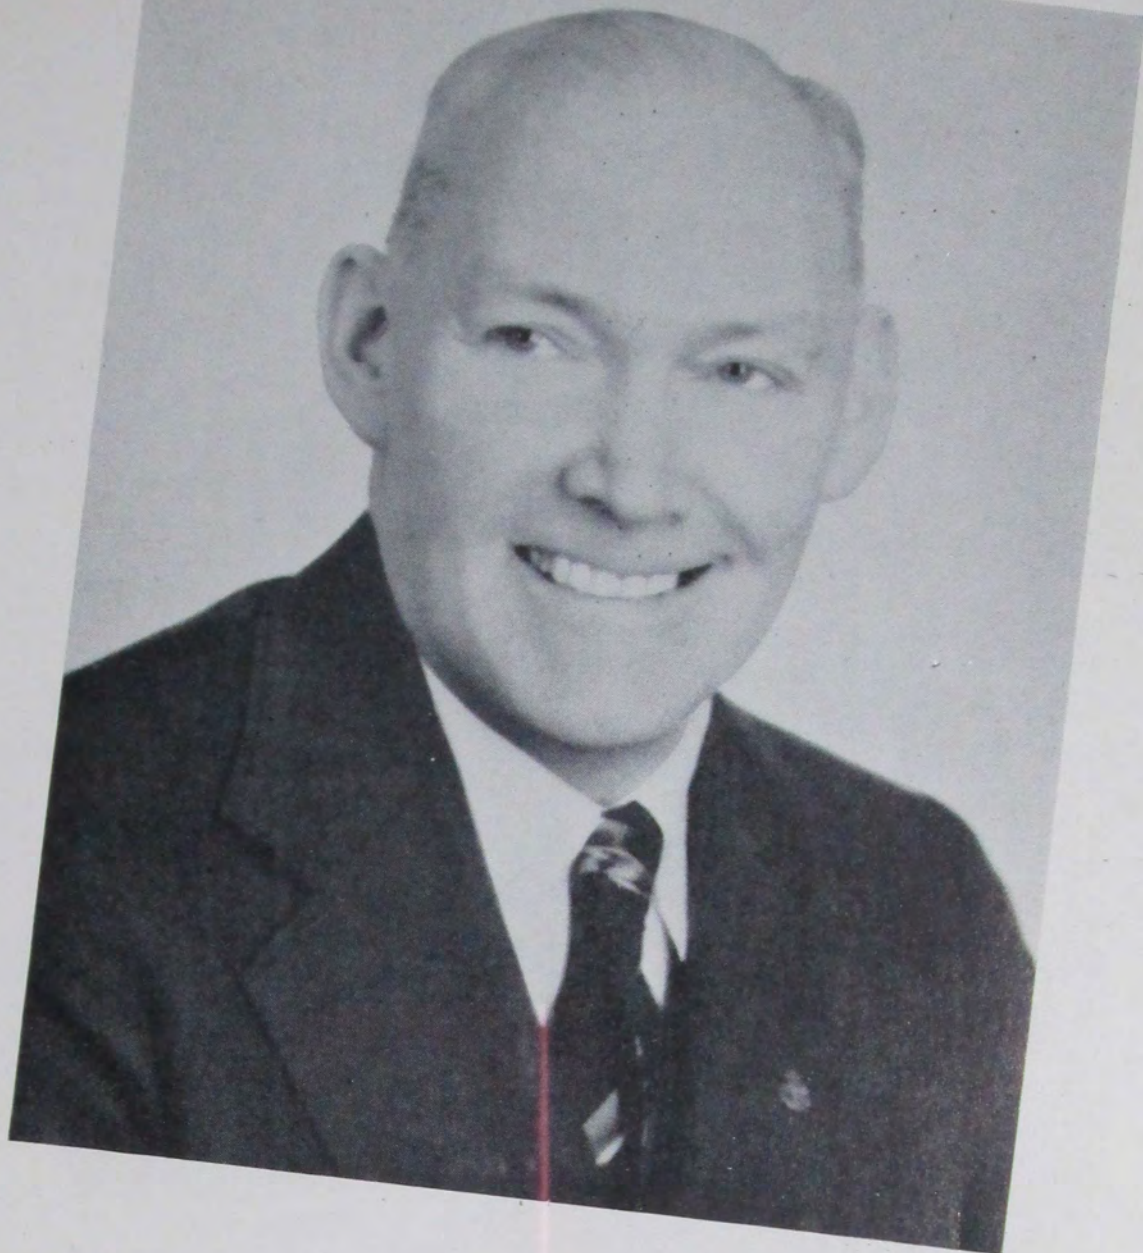

BROTHERHOOD, the formula for peace in this troubled world, the working together of all men for the common good regardless of color, race, or creed, is our expressed goal. This aim for eventual peace in the world may be assured in many ways; politically, by the betterment of governments; economically, by world agreement on trade; socially, by removing the prejudices of man. Furthermore, to strive for individual glory in these critical times in which we live will surely result in the destruction of brotherhood. Thus, in order to obtain brotherhood, we must have world unity and world understanding of all peoples.

We, the members of the Class of 1949, sincerely hope that the classes which follow in our footsteps will strive for the banishment of all prejudices in their respective groups, will aim for understanding of all people, and will endeavor to exert themselves for world peace. If the future classes actively plan for and support the above ideals, these groups will aid the process of brotherhood on its long journey.

Cyril F. Ellis

To You we, the members of the graduating class, dedicate our Annual in appreciation of your active services for the school and community, and in recognition of your sincere, loyal, and kindly assistance, both in the classroom and in all your personal contacts with the students. As Faculty Manager of athletics since 1945, you have inspired many of our classmates by your devotion to the principle of good sportsmanship; as a teacher of wide training and experience, you have been to all an understanding leader and a helpful guide.

Dedication

BROTHERHOOD . . . they promote it! . . . they teach tolerance and clear thinking . . . they are our guides . . . we owe them much . . . in the present . . . and into the future.

ADMINISTRA

The word 'ADMINISTRA' is followed by a series of horizontal lines: two thin lines, three thick lines, and one thin line at the bottom right.

To the Class of 1949 . . .

You, the members of the Class of 1949, are pioneers fully as much as the Forty-Niners of a century ago. Then the world was electrified by the news of the discovery of gold in California. Today the discovery of the element plutonium and its use to release atomic energy touched off a chain of events which will shake the world far more.

The rush to the gold fields in 1849 found many men fitted to cope with the rugged life which confronted them. It also revealed that others were lacking in a stamina, or knowledge of wilderness life, or proper equipment for the task.

The hurly-burly of this present day finds people who are competent to face the problems of life. It also finds those who lack the mental, physical, or spiritual qualities to meet successfully the conditions of modern life.

I have seen you grow in these qualities as individuals and as a group. I have watched you most keenly in this, your Senior year, and have been most gratified to see the maturing process as month by month you have demonstrated that you are becoming even more aware of the duties and responsibilities as well as the opportunities and rights that go with young manhood and womanhood. I have been particularly pleased to see your steadily widening knowledge of the techniques of democratic living, your constantly deepening love for our American way of life, and your ever strengthening belief in the dignity and worth of your fellowman in the eyes of God.

If the graduating classes of all the high schools over this broad land have become imbued with as complete an understanding as you have of the heritage that is yours, then I know that the destiny of this nation rests safe in the hands of your generation.

SCHOOL • 1949

Faculty

in Action

In the office Student Assistant Marion Glynn, Secretary Margaret Donnelly, and Assistant Secretary Margaret Fitzpatrick busy themselves in their daily routine.

Mr. Donald directs Peter Scifo, Walter Sullivan, John Smith, Eugene O'Brien, William Eldridge and Albert Arone in constructing a set for the senior play.

Artemis Topjian, Jeanette Larson, Walter Stuart, Miss McCarthy, Barbara Wheaton, Theodore Johnson and Lucy Pilibosian meet a Bulletin deadline.

Stemma Pappas, Arthur Manasian, Mrs. Crosby, Arthur Fitzgerald, Barbara Butler, and Mr. McGrath thresh out a Student Council problem.

ELIZABETH SEVERANCE

1926-1949

We take pride in paying tribute to Miss Severance as she resigns her position of teacher of French at Watertown High School. Having studied at Vassar College, the University of Paris, and Ecole Normal d'Orleans, she has always represented the highest qualities of scholarship. During her years at Watertown she has served as faculty advisor of the Bulletin and also as sponsor of the French Club. For twenty-three years she has been secretary of Cum Laude Society.

We express our gratitude to her with whom we are happy to share our graduation.

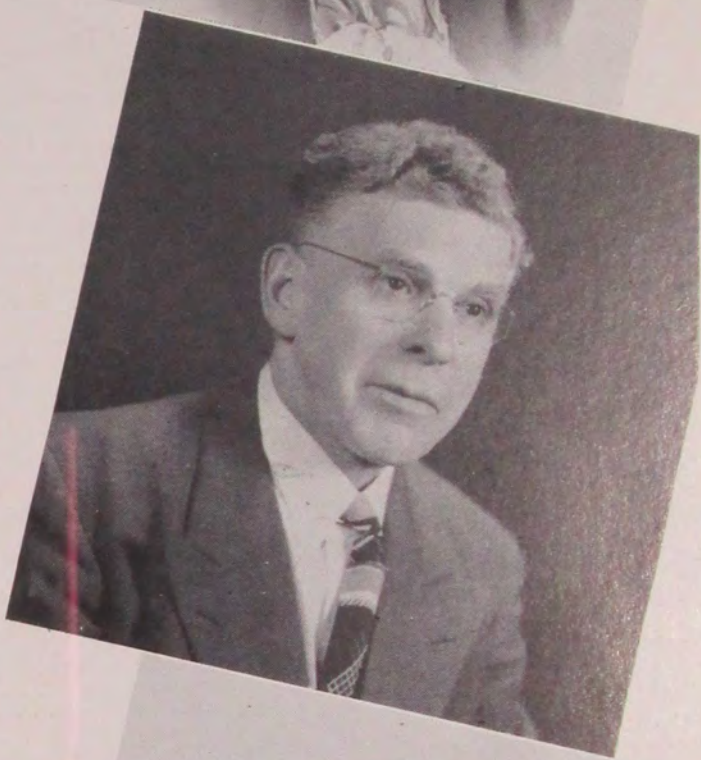

HUGH J. EISENHAUER

1926-1949

During his twenty-three years of service at Watertown High School Mr. Eisenhauer, who studied at Lowell Institute and Lowell State Teachers' College, has capably instructed the boys of the Industrial Arts Course in mechanical drawing, sheet-metal work, and machine shop operations. The Glider Club under his guidance constructed the large glider in the gymnasium. Also, his sheet-metal classes made the basketball scoreboard. These projects give evidence of his skill and of his service to the school.

Watertown High will remember him most for his friendliness and his co-operation.

JOHN F. CRAIG

1928-1949

A veteran of World War I, Mr. Craig came to W. H. S. from the Vocational School in Putnam, Connecticut. During his twenty-one years of service, he has done much to promote our scholastic and athletic standard. Head of the Industrial Arts Department since 1946, Mr. Craig earned the respect of all. As vice-president of the Watertown Teachers' Association and later as president, his work benefited the entire community. As coach, he introduced Soccer at W. H. S. and entering the Greater Boston League, won championships four out of seven seasons.

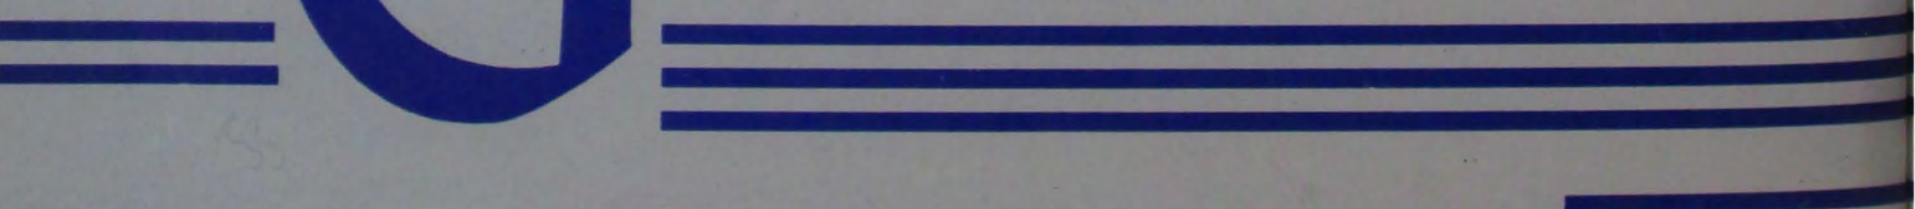

To Mr. Craig we extend our sincere wishes for success in his hobby of designing Cape Cod cottages.

In Your Honor

BROTHERHOOD . . did we show it? . . . Peace in the world through fraternity . . . can it be obtained?
. . . If so, it must be by us . . . the future citizens of the world. .

G R A D U A

In Memoriam

There is no death! What seems so is transition;
This life of mortal breath
Is but a suburb of the life elysian,
Whose portal we call Death.

She is not dead,—this friend of our affection,—
But gone into that school
Where she no longer needs our poor protection,
And Christ himself doth rule.

In that great cloister's stillness and seclusion,
By guardian angels led,
Safe from temptation, safe from sin's pollution,
She lives, whom we call dead.

Day after day we think what she is doing
In those bright realms of air;
Year after year, her tender steps pursuing,
Behold her grown more fair.

Thus do we walk with her, and keep unbroken,
The bond which nature gives,
Thinking that our remembrance, though unspoken,
May reach her where she lives.

Excerpt from "Resignation" by Henry W. Longfellow

BROTHERHOOD . . . we hope they achieve it . . . we will need their help . . . toward peace and fellowship . . . it is essential for living . . .
in the atomic age of today.

Class of 1950

It's fun to look back, isn't it? Remember our first day of high school life when we sat in our homerooms quivering with excitement and when we wandered around the corridors lost and perplexed?

In our sophomore year we elected the following officers: Don Sabino, president; Dick Shannon, vice-president; Cynthia Nye, secretary; Dale Carlisle, treasurer; Dick Hay, Paul Dupuis, and Janet Anderson, executive committee. The Sophomore Party was held on November 14, 1947. In May, the sophomores presented the Memorial Day Assembly, in which popular Harold Russell was the principal guest speaker. Thus our first year at Watertown High ended.

This year Dottie Christie, Ele Tambascio, Gladys Sarkisian, and Bev Bettencourt were chosen as cheerleaders. Mary MacIntyre and Frank Fitzpatrick were elected as secretary and treasurer of the Student Council, respectively.

Everyone agreed that our play, "Murder at Random," was a big hit. Soon after, the weeks of excited chatter and busy planning were climaxed by the long-awaited Junior Prom. In a beautifully decorated gym, we all danced to the music of Ken Reeves and his orchestra.

We must now look ahead, too—look ahead to an even more thrilling and memorable senior year at Watertown High.

Janet Anderson, Secretary

Helen Baiter, Ernest Colacito, Beverly Bettencourt, Walter Silvers, Edward Fichtner, Theresa Anastasi.

"Murder at Random"

Who could ever forget that very intriguing and dynamic play, "Murder at Random," presented by the Class of 1950. Much credit is due to Mrs. Betty Boerstler for her superb direction and to the cast for its admirable performance.

Paul Dupuis portrayed his part as Harold so excellently that he had the audience in "fits of laughter" for the entire evening. His very exasperated parents, portrayed by Gladys Sarkisian and Gerald Kinkin, supplied the remaining comedy of the play by their constant witty remarks. Three abandoned girls, characterized by Regina Iannazzi, Joan Garvin, and Theresa Anastasi, lead Harold on quite a merry chase. The actors, because they need the Dinsmore home desperately, endeavor to frighten the perplexed family from their ancestral abode. They almost succeed but the sheriff, portrayed by Walter Silvers, becomes too inquisitive. The actors are as follows: Madden, a treacherous gangster, George Leslie; Doctor, Edward Fichtner; Rachel, the gun moll and nurse, Helen Baiter; Oliver, a supposedly simple-minded assistant, Ernest Colacito; and the corpse that comes to life, Beverly Bettencourt.

Finally, there came the radio announcer who added the finishing touch to an exceptional Junior Play.

Early in September 406 boys and girls entered Watertown High School for the first time as students. Another step toward our goal had been reached. We struggled through our first days—finding our classes, meeting new teachers, and making new friends.

October found us ready to organize. We elected James Lopez, president; William Coakley, vice-president; Joan Carey, secretary; Warren Averill, treasurer; and to the executive committee, Cynthia Bradley, Richard Hansen, and Paul Stackpole. Shortly after the Christmas holidays our class party caused our greatest excitement. Movies and entertainment (piano and instrumental solos and ballet dancing) started the evening's fun. Then we enjoyed dancing and refreshments in the gymnasium—an evening never to be forgotten!

We proved our capability in both scholarship and athletics. Four girls won their numerals in varsity field hockey, and three boys showed their prowess not only on the football field but also on the basketball court by winning letters in both these sports.

Our sophomore year has been a stimulating one. We know that in our succeeding years we will make the class of 1951 one that will be remembered for its active participation in the life of the school.

Joan Carey,
Secretary

"Our Masters"—David Vachon and Mary Boyagian entertain at the Sophomore Party.

Sophomore Party

Do you think a severe snow storm could keep sophomores away from the high school on the twenty-first of January? Indeed not! That was the night of our class party.

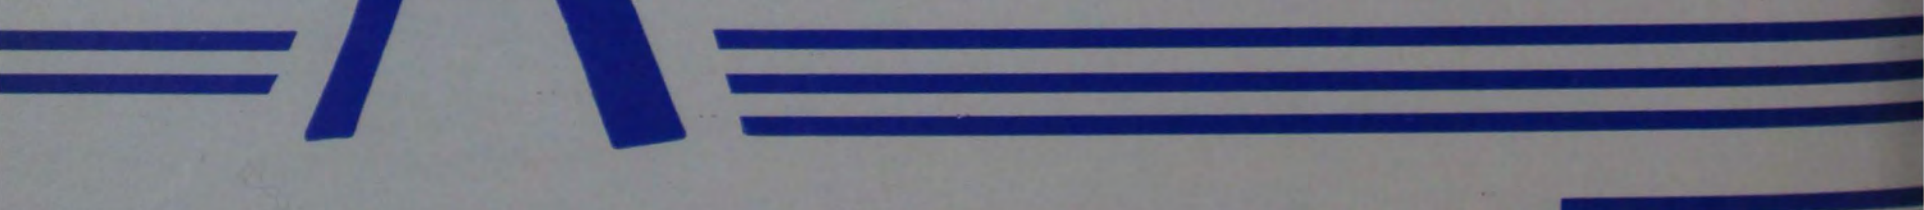

We started the evening with a program of enjoyable movies concerning sports, music sketches and also some enjoyable comics. Following this part of the program we were able to observe a delightful program put on by our own class members. We were quite proud of our many talents (all being very good). Some of the very outstanding were Neila Tilison, Timna Donahue, and David Vachon with the pleasing pianist Mary Boyagian. After this very enjoyable program we went to the gymnasium where records provided the music for dancing.

As all good evenings must end, so did ours—after refreshments and another dance by Neila Tilison, which we enjoyed during our refreshments, we all agreed that our party was one to be remembered. I am sure that we all would like to thank the faculty for their help in making our party a success, and also for the co-operation of the sophomore class whose splendid behavior was a credit to all.

BROTHERHOOD . . . They practiced it . . . Did it succeed? . . . we must strive to develop fraternity . . . to have peace . . . to live together . . . most of all to survive in this uncertain era.

A C T I V I T

Art Club

Under the able supervision of Mr. Harold L. Moody, the Art Club has met every Wednesday.

The Art Club's thirty-six members have taken part in various projects. The Club has contributed its talents generously to school activities by planning the decorations for many school affairs, such as, the Valentine's Day Dance, the Christmas Holly Hop, and the Student Council Kick-off, as well as doing unusual Christmas cards, either by free hand or by linoleum blocks.

In order to broaden their general art knowledge, the members visited various schools such as the Massachusetts Art School, The Practical Art School, and the Paine's Art Exhibition, and the Boston American newspaper.

The election of officers resulted as follows: Richard Bakalyan, president; Jack Iodice, vice-president; Walter McCarthy, treasurer; and Mary Dyer, secretary.

Band

The Senior High School Band, under the capable direction of Mr. Arnold Chick, has had a very busy and varied season. The Band participated in all the high school football games and at the Pep Rallies preceding the games, a fact which helped make the games and rallies a great success. The band also played for evening activities and several assemblies. The annual band concert, January 14, 1949, proved to be a great success. The Band also marched in the C. Y. O. parades in Boston and the Memorial Day parade. To climax the year, however, the members attended two festivals: The Massachusetts Music Festival and the New England Festival. All in all, the band has had a busy and well-rounded program with a great deal of deserved praise.

Biology Club

The Biology Club has a bright future. Its firm foundation, established by its capable leadership, has grown with Stephen Pacifico as president; Alice Paskerian, vice-president; Sonya Sohigian, secretary; and Dorothy Hampikian, treasurer. Since many juniors and sophomores have already gained valuable experience serving on projects and committees, the club promises to continue as one of the most interesting in the school's extracurricular program. This year, the newly-organized committees, through their diligent work, supplied the Biology Laboratory with aquariums, terrariums, birds, animals, and reptiles, producing truly the biologist's paradise. The Club owes its success to Mr. Robert MacCurdy, the sponsor, who has given its members very valuable assistance in its year's work.

Broadcasting Club

Sponsored by Miss Eleanor McBreen, the Broadcasting Club stimulated a keen interest in the field of dramatics and radio. The members gave several successful broadcasts over WEEI and WCRB in Waltham. The club, new this year, is a great success and has its own studio in the Francis School. Its members constantly used the recording machines, microphones, and other mechanical devices in the school in order to acquaint themselves with studio equipment and its uses, and to prepare broadcasts. The members also had lessons in correct speech and pronunciation.

The officers were: Edward Rosoff, president; Artemis Topjian, vice-president; and Cynthia Nye, secretary. These officers, along with Miss McBreen worked hard in order to make the Broadcasting Club a great success.

Bulletin

With an editorial staff composed of Theodore Johnson, editor in chief; Barbara Wheaton, news editor; Walter Stuart, sports editor; and Jeanette Larson, business manager, the Bulletin had an unusually successful year. Miss Margaret McCarthy served ably as faculty adviser, with the assistance of Miss Geraldine Murphy as chief copy-reader. The club received recognition for its efforts by being granted a Quill and Scroll Charter.

Besides the regular articles of the Bulletin, the editors added special features, including "Through the Looking Glass", "Meet Your Teachers."

The club sponsored the annual Holly Hop, as the result of which several members attended the Columbia Scholastic Press Association Conference in New York.

Camera Club

One of the most active clubs in Watertown High School is the Camera Club, which holds meetings every Thursday under the capable sponsorship of Miss Thayer. At these meetings the members discuss and demonstrate different phases of photography such as developing, contact printing, enlarging, copying, coloring, and the operating of the various types of cameras. In our well-equipped darkroom you will find a group of photography enthusiasts almost any time of day, and often you will see our president, Bob Fulton, and some of the more experienced members, taking group pictures or "snapping" candid around the building.

An important project of the club is the supplying of club pictures and candid for the Bulletin and the Annual. At the end of the year the club holds an exhibition contest, which climaxes a series of smaller competitions. The club displays this exhibition contest in the library.

Chess Club

At the very outset the club suffered a double blow in the loss of the Goncz brothers, upon whom the club largely depended for assured future victories. The chess players quickly reorganized, however, and planned their strategy. They engaged in match play with other high schools at the Phillip Brooks House at Harvard. In turn they devoted their club periods to blackboard demonstrations of the various attacks and defenses employed in specific situations. The success of this active club was due in no small measure to the indefatigable efforts of its sponsor, Mr. Carlo Vacca.

The officers for the year were: Kenneth Jacques, president; Paul Dupuis, vice-president; Clara Lepordo, secretary; and Martha Washburn, treasurer.

Chorus

The Special Chorus is a picked girls' choral group, which has done splendid work in the past years under the direction of Mr. Walter Mayo. The girls participated in both the Massachusetts State Music Festival and the New England Music Festival, receiving excellent ratings. On December 8, 1948, at the Lowell School, the Chorus also took part in the "Radio Work Shop" sponsored by the Watertown School Department, and the Office of Radio Massachusetts Department of Education. The girls also participated in the Christmas Assembly during which they did two special numbers: "The Child of Bethlehem" and "Jesu Bambino." The Annual Spring Concert was one of the special events for the Special Chorus, for it required a lot of time and effort on the part of its members.

Commercial Club

The Commercial Club has completed its eighth successful year under the sponsorship of its advisor, Miss Elizabeth Desmond. Its purpose was to acquaint students with office procedures. Monthly meetings were held, during which speakers, not only in the commercial field but with various interesting business connections as well, gave helpful hints to the club members. Each girl had an opportunity to plan a meeting. Among its activities, the club sponsored spelling bees, parties, and various other programs. A highlight event of the year was a Christmas Party, which proved to be a success. At the close of the year, the club enjoyed the competitive typing contest.

The officers for this year were: Charlotte Dupuis, president; Joan Ryan, vice-president; Esther Gorgodian, secretary; and Maritza Bazarian, treasurer.

Glee Club

During the past year the Glee Club has had a membership of approximately eighty girls and boys. The club not only performed during various assemblies, but also presented the annual caroling throughout the corridors the day before Christmas vacation.

"Ode to America," by Noble Caine; "Go Down Moses," a spiritual; "Waltz of the Flowers," by Tschaikowski; and "Our Father in Heaven" were a few among the selections performed by the group at the successful May concert, an event given in conjunction with the Orchestra and Girls' Chorus. The members of the club rehearsed enthusiastically throughout the entire year and deserve special commendation. The whole club owes its success to Mr. Walter Mayo, who expertly coached the members.

The officers were: Louis Sharples, president; Sonya Sohigian, vice-president; and Nancy Hadjian, secretary-treasurer.

Italian Club

Under the dynamic aegis of Rita Rosati, the Italian Club was livelier this year than ever before. Speakers, songs, films, games, kodachrome slides, museum trips, visits to other schools and to colleges, and dinners in Italian restaurants constituted a pleasant, well-rounded program. In all these activities the president received splendid support from the other officers: Clara Lepordo, vice-president; Caroline Russo, secretary; and Madia Semarro, treasurer.

Though the club members had fun and gained much that was valuable in social experiences, they also profited from discussions on Italian philosophies and on world problems. They studied such problems as the black market, the teenage situation in Italy, and the social, educational, and economic reconstruction of contemporary Italy.

Library Club

The Library Club, primarily a service club, assisted in the work of the library. Its members collected library permits from study halls, distributed books and overdue notices, helped with catalog filing, and the shelving of books. Meetings were held once a week in the library conference room. The club was anxious to do something constructive in the way of improving the book collection. As a result, the members sold gold-plated football pins, a successful project. The club also sponsored a dance in Whitehill Hall called "The Snowball Dance." The dance proved to be a financial success as well as a social success. As an annual gift, the club donated a set of books to the library.

The officers for the year were: Pauline Ford, president; Jane Braffitt, vice-president; Dorothy Crowdis, secretary; and Gloria Green, treasurer.

ITALIAN CLUB

Orchestra

The Watertown High School Orchestra, under the capable direction of Mr. Walter Mayo, has had a busy and well-rounded program. Its musical selections have been of a very wide range, including such interesting pieces as: "The Marriage of Figaro," by Mozart and "Fiddle Faddle" by Leroy Anderson.

The orchestra gave its first performance at the Woman's Club Play, presented for the benefit of the Annual Music Scholarship Fund. Following this, the orchestra played at several evening affairs, including the senior and junior plays. In addition to the Annual May Concert, the orchestra also took part in the Massachusetts and the New England Music Festivals, at which it received a commendable rating. Finally, its music added a great deal to the Senior Graduation Exercises.

Pep Club

The Pep Club, a newly organized club this year, consists of about one hundred members. This club was formed to aid the cheerleaders in cheering at the football games. The members of all three classes attended every football game in a body. Under the supervision of Miss Sally Biggane and Mrs. Rita Crosby, the club has proved to be a success and has become well-known throughout the school.

The Pep Club had the opportunity of making a recording to be heard over Chuck Crosby's radio broadcast, which also included cheers and songs by the student body and talks by the winter coaches. The club has continued to cheer at the basketball and hockey games during the school year.

Projection Club

Every Wednesday noon some twenty interested students, members of the Projection Club, meet in Room 7 to learn how to run 16mm projectors and the recordio as well as to study how to splice film. The members of this active club set up the public address system for the Assembly Committee, thus covering all the assemblies in the school. In addition to the help at assemblies, the club gives freely of its time in school activities and assists in the use of the audio-visual aids in the classroom. The club has purchased pins for its members with the weekly collection of dime dues.

Officers of the club are: Aristophanes Vlassakis, president; Kenneth Jacques, vice-president; and Lois Leonard, secretary.

Quid Nunc

This year under the direction of Miss Mary Boyle, Quid Nunc increased its members to thirty-five girls. The club began its activities by collecting money throughout the school in order to purchase articles for twenty Red Cross boxes to be shipped overseas. They also assisted in collecting clothing for needy European families. The girls made holiday favors for servicemen's hospitals, trimmed trees at the Waltham Regional Hospital, and gave a Christmas dinner to an underprivileged Watertown family. Later in the year the club sponsored a dance and Faculty Tea, both of which were very successful.

The officers were: Constance Fitzgerald, president; Caroline Dolan, vice-president; Dorothy Christie, corresponding secretary; Agnes Durrigan, recording secretary; and Nancy Manzelli, treasurer.

Rifle Club

The Rifle Club, under the capable direction of Major Arthur McGrath, has complied with the Junior Rifle Club requirements of the National Rifle Association of America. The Major has trained the boys in the proper handling and carrying of firearms. The members of the club wish to extend their hearty thanks to the Major for his time and patient instruction. Great effort on the part of the members has increased the club's popularity and its high standards. The club's motto is "safety first," for the members adopt the policy that firearms must be handled in a safe and sane way on the firing range and afield.

The officers for the year were as follows: Jack Kamishlian, president; Bill Marsden, secretary-treasurer; and Robert Yetman, vice-president.

Spanish Club

The Spanish Club, formed this year under the supervision of Miss Stella Malkasian, elected the following officers: Dolores Pereira, president; Dorothy Wallace, vice-president; Caroline Russo, secretary; Ann Chisholm, treasurer.

The club met weekly during home-room periods on Fridays in order to stimulate an interest in the Spanish language. The club periods were spent in singing Spanish songs and in recording a few of the Spanish tunes. The club obtained several movies depicting the life and customs of the Spanish and Mexican people, which they showed to all Spanish classes. At various times of the year, members visited museums in order to examine relics of old Spain. During its first year, the Spanish Club has been very successful. It has its goal and is looking forward to a brilliant future.

Hi-Y

The Hi-Y Club this year has done its best to fulfill its purpose—"To create, maintain and extend throughout the school and community high standards of Christian character." The following officers were elected: Joseph Mullen, president; Clinton Chevoor, vice-president; Barry Plunkett, secretary; and Dominic Sabatino, treasurer.

The club has served the school in various ways. Its members, throughout the year, have cleaned the tables and straightened out the chairs after the lunch periods. The boys have also taken the responsibility of appointing various members for lobby duty to receive any visitors to the school. As usual the Hi-Y Club sponsored the Victory Dance after the Thanksgiving Day game.

This year the club worked under the excellent leadership of Mr. William O'Toole, who was the faculty advisor.

Tri-Hi

Tri-Hi, one of Watertown High's most popular social clubs, this year increased its membership to forty-four.

During its meetings, held at the Newton Y. M. C. A., the club discussed social and educational plans which would benefit the school and community. A dance was given by the Tri-Hi girls, and because of its success, the members held a similar affair later in the year. During the Christmas vacation, the girls, dressed in their prettiest frocks, assisted in the Annual Alumni Tea.

The officers for this year were: Dorothy Jane Braffitt, president; Marjorie Stevenson, vice-president; Marion Glynn, secretary; Marjorie MacIntosh, treasurer; and Constance Fitzgerald, chaplain.

The club owes a great part of its success to its helpful faculty advisor, Miss Geraldine Murphy.

"A Woman of Sixteen"

The hilarious play, A Woman of Sixteen, which was presented by the senior class December 10, 1948, was a rollicking success. Martha Matson, who played the part of Barb, had the audience in "stitches" with her action and "dumb remarks," while Sally Chilingarian and Mary Tsesmetja captivated everyone with their French and Negro accents, respectively. Nancy Pratley, a typical sixteen year-old, who thought her home was being broken up by Charlotte Dupuis, tried to patch up affairs between her easy-going mother, Dorothy Wallace, and her stern, but likeable father, Walter Stewart.

The play ended happily, however, as Jane discovered with the help of two of her friends that Sophia Thayer, Charlotte Dupuis, is married and that "Pops" is still in love with "Mops." Mrs. Boerstler, coach and director of the play, added another success to her list and brought still more dramatic fame to Watertown High School.

BROTHERHOOD . . . they accomplish it . . . we hope they will lead us . . . in the years ahead . . . to lasting harmony . . . for one world . . . to benefit all . . . in service and in leadership.

H O N O

The letters 'H O N O' are rendered in a large, bold, blue serif font. Below the letters, there are several horizontal blue lines of varying lengths and thicknesses, creating a decorative graphic element that spans the width of the page.

Cum Laude

Election to membership in the Watertown High Chapter of the National Cum Laude Society is the signal honor which rewards those seniors achieving the highest degree of success in scholarship. Only college preparatory seniors are eligible to receive the golden key, because they alone have completed a well-rounded course in academic subjects.

The Watertown High Chapter received its charter from the National Cum Laude Society in 1921. Ours was the first and is still the only public high school in Massachusetts to be so distinguished. There are nineteen chapters of Cum Laude in Massachusetts, but the others are all in strictly college preparatory schools of the most outstanding reputation, like Phillips Exeter, Phillips Andover, Lawrence Academy at Groton, Tabor Academy, and Dana Hall at Wellesley.

As Cum Laudes graduate, we wish them well! The same qualities of achievement which won them this honor will continue to bring them success in the future!

Student Council

The Student Council held its first meeting in September, 1948, with Arthur Manasian acting as president. The following officers were elected by the Council: Arthur Manasian, president; Dom Sabatino, vice-president; Frank Fitzpatrick, treasurer; and Mary MacIntyre, secretary. The high spot of the year's social whirl was the Council Kick-Off, held in the gym on November 19. This affair, under the supervision of Dom Sabatino and his hard working Committee, proved to a tremendous success, netting high profits for the Office Fund.

The Council unanimously passed a proposal to increase the weekly dime dues to fifteen cents in order to cope with the higher cost of equipping and maintaining athletic teams, of supporting the Bulletin, and of financing the monthly Student Council Assemblies. Various drives conducted during the year by the Council included the Red Feather, Salvation Army, and the Red Cross Drives. The aid and splendid advice of both Mrs. Rita Crosby and Mr. Arthur McGrath helped make the year a successful one.

National Honor Society

Membership in the Saltonstall Chapter of the National Honor Society, which was established in 1937, is a goal well worth attaining during one's high school years. The members of National Honor, during the year 1948-1949, were chosen because of their outstanding qualification in scholarship and service to the school.

Because of the constant activity in other school affairs, this organization was not very active during the school year, though it did sponsor a social affair early in March. This activity proved to be a great success under the able leadership of the faculty advisors: Miss Edith Jacobs, chairman, Mr. Alfred Adams, Miss Alice McNally, Mrs. Ruth Thulin, and Miss Mildred Caram, with Mr. Holland acting as faculty president.

Early in May the society plans to induct new members from the upper thirds of the Junior and Senior classes. Five per cent of the Junior class and ten per cent of the Senior class will be inducted. The officers during this year: Joseph Mullen, president; Artemis Topjian, vice-president; Helen Valacellis, secretary; Elva Colacito, treasurer.

Quill and Scroll

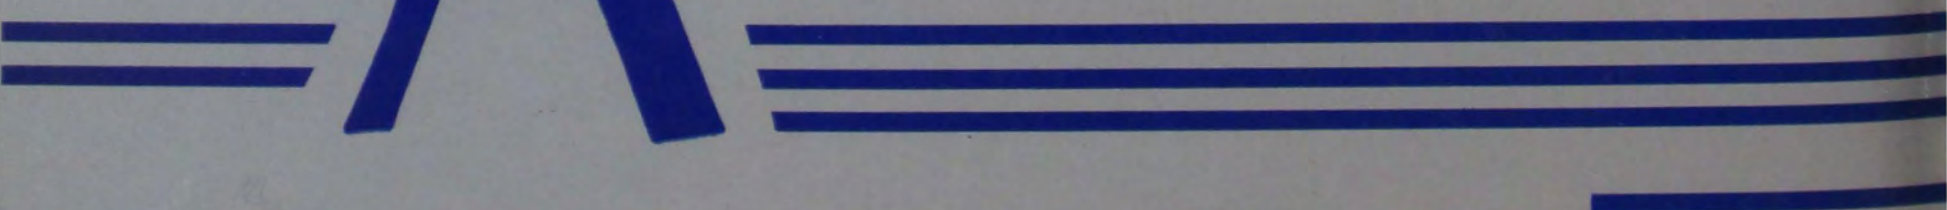

Election to Quill and Scroll, The International Honorary Society for High School Journalists is the highest journalistic honor which a high school reporter or editor can receive. Five senior members of the Bulletin Staff were doubly honored this year by becoming charter members of the Watertown High School Chapter of the society. The group is composed of: Theodore Johnson, Jeanette Larson, Lucy Pilibosian, Artemis Topjian, and Barbara Wheaton. To be eligible for election to Quill and Scroll one must be in the upper third of his class, at least a junior in standing, and must have done outstanding work in some field of journalistic or creative writing. The primary objective of the society is to encourage clear thinking and forceful writing.

The school received its Quill and Scroll charter in June of last year when Miss Margaret McCarthy, the society's sponsor, was admitted to membership in the international organization. The Bulletin was entered in the Annual Quill and Scroll competition for the first time this year and received an International Second Place Award.

Cheerleaders

Captain Mary O'Brien

Coach Miss Sally Biggane

Much of the enthusiasm evidenced by the student body during the football games was due to the leadership of the high school cheerleaders. Under Miss Sally Biggane's leadership, the girls "backed up" the boys during all the games with their spirited singing and cheering. The cheerleaders also did a great deal toward making the Football Pep Rallies a great success.

During the basketball season, the girls cheered the boys on to many a victory, and they also cheered the enthusiastic spectators into an encouraging mood.

Though there was no cheering space during the hockey games, most of the cheerleaders were among the animated spectators. On the whole, the girls did a fine job in developing "school spirit." Mary O'Brien, the peppy senior leader, deserves special commendation for her excellent work.

Coach Joe Murphy did a marvelous job and with a few breaks here and there the Murphymen could have found themselves at the top of the heap leading the Class B division.

Although the season closed with a 27-6 defeat at the hands of arch-rival Belmont, the Red-Raiders played inspired ball throughout the year.

The season was featured by the smart ball handling of quarterback Art Manasian and the long distance running of Vin Alberico. Dick Johnson, Captain George Mullen, Dan Cronin, Henri Kasbarian, and Ed Farraher played a great defensive, as well as offensive, game. Most of the ball carrying was done by big Arthur Fitzgerald, Carmine Parrella, and the aforementioned Alberico.

After many weeks of diligent practice under the capable coaching of Miss Biggane, the field hockey squad opened the 1949 season of girls' sports. Seniors constituted the nucleus of the first team, and the second team was composed mainly of juniors and several sophomores, who for the first time in the history of girls' sports in W. H. S. were allowed to become members of the varsity.

When the two Goncezes moved to Colorado, the backbone of the team went with them, and Coach John Craig's boys did well to wind up the year with one win, two ties, and five losses. The girls' varsity basketball team had a heartbreaking season this year. It seemed that "Lady Luck" was against the players in every game, for although they were evenly matched with their opponents, they lost the majority of their games by a close margin of one or two points.

Captain Lorraine Cousineau, the only veteran on the team, was the outstanding player of each game. Aided by the other forwards, Sonia Kazanjian, Mary Ann Abadjian, and Sally Chilingarian, the team displayed the expert coaching of Miss Biggane. Without the skilful guarding of Sally Beattie, Barbara Fiorentino, and Helen Valacellis, the squad would not have demonstrated such a high degree of teamwork. Other seniors who assisted on the varsity were Marilyn Bickford, Lois Black, and Manager Nancy Manzelli.

The team took second place in both the League and in Class B rating, topped only by Arlington. This year's cross-country contingent led by the Barlow brothers, Herb and Dick, and Roland San Souci, completed a highly successful season under the able tutelage of Mr. Perkins. The team met in five intra-squad encounters with Beverly, Belmont, Arlington, Haverhill and Weymouth, and were victorious in three out of five of these dual meets. In past-season contests the macadammen finished in second place in three championship meets.

Roland San Soucie and Herb Barlow, talented junior and sophomore track men respectively, were invited to compete in the annual New England Cross-country race, although Herb Barlow was forced to bow out due to injuries. First team members were: Roland San Soucie, Herb Barlow, Co-Captain Dick Barlow, Anga Danielson, Co-Captain James Consolazio, Lloyd Kenney, Roger Moore, and Ando Dadagian.

Tennis

This year's tennis squad under the able tutelage of Mr. John Koumjian will start practice for another tennis season, when the weather permits. Only two holdover regulars are returning from last year's squad. They are Captain Jack Iodice, a senior, and Clayton Whittaker, a promising junior.

Although Mr. Koumjian lost Peter Fredrickson, one of the outstanding tennis players in high school circles last year, it is expected that Jack Iodice will equal or surpass his accomplishments.

There will be ample opportunity for court hopefuls this year, due to the fact that the majority of the boys graduated last spring. Watertown will compete in dual meets with topranking teams, such as Newton and Belmont, and we have high hopes of their winning many laurels for Watertown High and Mr. Koumjian.

Golf

The golf team, possessing the nucleus of a championship squad, began practice under Mr. Malley just as soon as the grounds at the Oakley Country Club were ready for use. Returning regulars from the last year's squad were Newbar Der Aharonian, Robert Curtin, Robert Jucknavorian, and Ralph Mee. Newcomers who bolstered the team were Charlie McMahon, Jimmy Doyle, and Bob Leary. Captain Aharonian, the only senior member of the team, often gave outstanding performances of golf playing. Although Mr. Malley lost standout link men, this year's group procured an even better showing than the third place captured last season in the Central District League.

Tennis

After a series of tournaments among the candidates for the tennis squad, Coach Biggane selected her 1949 tennis team. As a result of these tournaments, several newcomers as well as veteran players of the past year, earned positions on the squad. The veterans, Captain Helen Valacellis, Lois Leonard, and Cynthia Nye, helped to make the season a successful one. They displayed an expert knowledge of stroking techniques gained through sound coaching. Two of the members, Marilyn Bickford and Lois Black, contributed their skill and proved to be assets to the team. Because the undergraduates formed, however, the majority of the team, they can look forward to an even more successful year next season.

Baseball

Watertown's success on the diamond was inevitable with such outstanding players as Renzi, Stackpole, Shannon, Charsoodian, and Mullen, veteran players. The schedule saw Watertown encountering many power-house nines, such as Arlington and Newton. However, the non-stop localites did much better than expected. The great courage and spirit shown by the team saw it rise to new heights in the Suburban League. Great clutch pitching by Stackpole, along with the long distance clouting and flawless fielding of the teammates, was a contributing factor in their success. The long list of inspired Sophomores and juniors seemed sure to form the nucleus of an equally able team in the years ahead.

History

It seems as though it were only yesterday that we began the most enjoyable time of our lives—Our High School Days. The first days of school are still vivid in our minds. We still recall wending our ways through the long, winding corridors, trying to puzzle out the maps which were distributed to us, and finally managing to survive the first bewildering days of school.

Everyone was very kind and helpful to us, and it was not long before we discovered how wonderful our classmates were. It seemed that in no time at all we were participating in many of the activities of Watertown High School.

Do you remember the great enthusiasm that was displayed prior to our first class elections? The posters and campaign speeches added such a thrill to this, our first election. After the great competition the following pupils came out on top: Augusto Martino, president; Arthur Manasian, vice-president; Marion Glynn, secretary; Lois Black, treasurer; Joan Glover, Susan Iodice, and Dominic Sabatino, executive committee. These officers held several meetings, during which they discussed plans for the coming years. They soon selected blue and white as the colors for the class of 1949. Under the supervision of Mr. Ford, our sophomore class advisor, we held our first social activity, the Sophomore Party. This was the first opportunity for our friends from the East and West Junior Highs to become acquainted. Needless to say, this was a huge success.

It was a joyous feeling to know that as juniors we were now climbing the next step in the ladder to our senior year. This year was off to a happy start with the election of another fine group of officers, which consisted of Joseph Mullen, president; Arthur Manasian, vice-president; Marion Glynn, secretary; Daniel Cronin, treasurer; Joan Glover, Nancy Manzelli, and Dominic Sabatino, executive committee.

We were very busy during our junior year. Do you remember the excellent Christmas Assembly that we presented under the supervision of Miss Jacobs? The crib scene proved very impressive with Elva Colacito singing Christmas hymns beautifully. In the spring our first formal event was our Junior Dance. Remember how the Gymnasium was so gaily decorated—how we danced to the enchanting music of Artie Barsamian? The first great undertaking of the class, however, was the production of "Quiet Summer," directed by Mrs. Boerstler. Some of the leading stars were: Dan Cronin, Nancy Pratley, Elva Colacito, Paul Goncz, and Richard Bakalyan. These people, together with all the members of the play committees, deserve a great deal of credit for making our play such a success. In the spring of our junior year a number of our classmates were inducted into the National Honor Society. This was a great thrill to them and an honor to the school.

It was very difficult to realize, but here we were, nearing the end of our happy days. In a few months we would be putting into practical use the knowledge that we had attained at Watertown High School. Once again we held our class elections. The final elections were: Daniel Cronin, president; Walter Stuart, vice-president; Marion Glynn, secretary; Nancy Manzelli, treasurer; Marilyn Bickford, Barbara Rundlett, Lucy Sefarian, executive committee. This year proved to be the busiest of all years. The committees for the Annual and the play were chosen.

The Senior Play, "A Woman of Sixteen," was presented in December. Nancy Pratley claimed the leading role in this three-act comedy. She did a very fine piece of work. Much credit was due to the cast that displayed so much talent and also to the members who served on the various play committees.

There were many happy memories this senior year—Freak Day, the Senior Promenade, the Banquet, Baccalaureate services, and last, but not least, the most wonderful day of all—Our Graduation Day.

Although we bring this class history to an end, we shall never end the friendships that we have made in these enjoyable three years, or forget the happy memories of the many hours we spent in Watertown High School.

To compose a thoroughly legal document, one must strive to sound a thoroughly legal "note." But as perjury is hardly pardonable, the ensuing terms, as you will undoubtedly notice, are somewhat altered.

The "soundness" of our minds is quite frequently questioned; our "sanity" is flatly denied; we ourselves, doubt the perfection of our "physical health," for Sky-Bars are constantly on hand to supplement our rapidly decreasing kinetic energy —But enough of this Name-calling.

We, the illustrious members of the Class of '49, bestow these talents, aptitudes, leanings, treasures, or whatever ladylike names you wish to choose for them, to our long suffering teachers, the unfortunate undergrads, and to the places ever fresh in our memories.

Article I—To Mister Holland we leave our heart-felt sympathy on losing one of the most illustrious and intelligent classes to be graduated from Watertown High School (despite any rumors to the contrary).

Article II—To Mr. Kelley we bequeath a tube of Sloan's Liniment to soothe the writers' cramps of the unlucky souls who have become well acquainted with Webster's Dictionary.

Article III—To Miss Jacobs we leave a set of little black books so that she can conduct her own Gallup Pole in the cafeteria to find out how many times an average senior crunches his potato chips before swallowing them.

Article IV—To Mrs. Crosby we bequeath a bar of Tintz Hair Coloring to conceal the gray hairs which she insists she is acquiring from the selling of tickets which no one seems to want to buy.

Article V—To Mr. Kelman we leave our culinary arts to inspire him when he finds his Problems undemocratic.

Article VI—To Mr. Murphy we leave the price of a reliable fortune teller so that they may compare notes on the working prowess of their crystal balls!

* * * * *

And now we turn to the most important people in the school—the students!

From this worthy group we have chosen the poor unfortunates whom we have attempted to scandalize in the eyes of all Watertown Society—namely us.

1. George Mullen leaves his "Athlete's Feet" to the future captain of next year's football team, whoever he may be.

2. Arthur Fitzgerald's magnetic attraction for the women is left to???? The lucky man!!

3. Mary O'Brien wills her secret overwhelming desire to reach her eighteenth birthday to her sister Alice.

4. To Warren Averill, Dom Sabatino leaves his reserved lounge chair next to the radio in "Joe's."

5. We bequeath Helen Valacellis's 20-20 vision to David Vachon.

6. Dan Cronin wills his "Golden Gloves" to Robert Wells.

7. To the future guests of Watertown High Hockey Team, Fred LoChiatto leaves his jet-propelled skates to "zoom" them on to another Championship.

8. Donald MacDougall, considering meals a sheer waste of would-be study hours, wills his sparrow-like appetite to Ronald Guittar.

9. To Harold Alexander we leave Cinki's magic cue stick.

10. Ted Johnson leaves his quiet studying mind to Peter Kachajian.

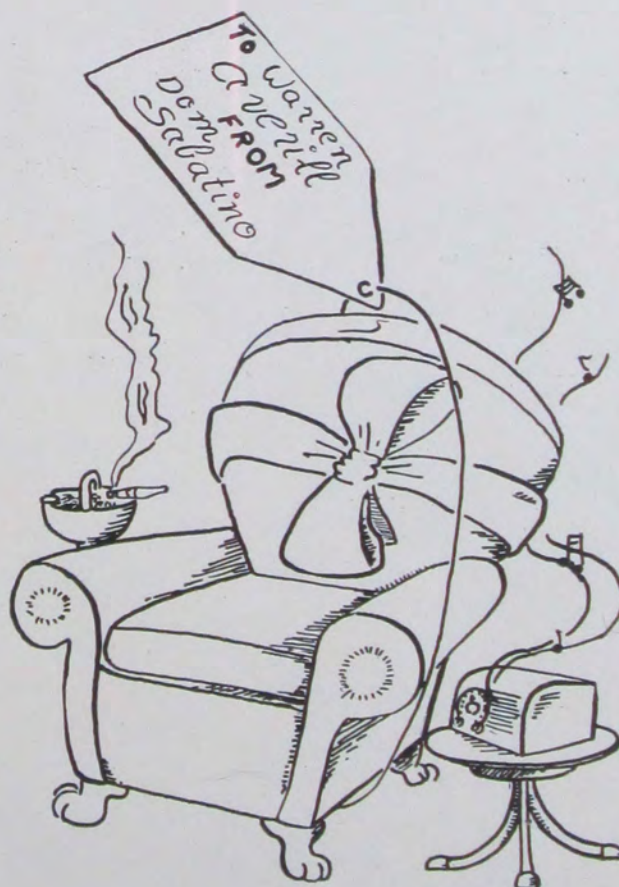

11. To all who avoid the pepsodent smile we leave Arthur Manasian's fascination for teeth.

12. Henri Kasberian wills his extensive and voluminous vocabulary to Bob Bradley.

In conclusion, we wish to say only this. We have friends sitting on the bench of the Supreme Court in case you should desire to prove the validity of the preceding statements.
