WATERTOWN SENIOR HIGH SCHOOL

Watertown, Massachusetts

... June, 1933...

Foreword

The ANNUAL Staff offers this seventh volume of the Year Book to its classmates with the hope that not only now but in future years its contents will serve to awaken pleasant recollections of their high school companions and their high school activities.

To Miss Frost

through whose encouragement and efforts many of us have been interested to seek a higher education, and whose loyalty and unfailing devotion to duty will remain as an inspiring example to us all.

The Class of 1933 wishes to make this sincere expression of appreciation to Mr. Whitehill and the entire faculty, who, with patient understanding, have encouraged us in our failures and rejoiced in our successes, thereby helping us to realize at last the success of graduation.

...HISTORY OF THE CLASS OF 1933...

IT MAY be difficult for our unsuspecting readers to realize that we, the haughty and sophisticated mortals whose pictures they have just seen, were once poor, bewildered, frightened little Juniors, but 'tis so. We were, perhaps, even more bewildered and frightened than Juniors usually are, for our year started with a great disturbance that put us somewhat off balance. We had no get-acquainted party that year, yet despite this great disappointment, most of our number managed to become acquainted, perhaps because of our democratic spirit. In the midst of our getting-settled turmoil, we managed to elect class officers as follows: President, Thomas Gough; Vice President, Adolph Piantedosi; Secretary, Aerial Johnstone; Treasurer, Edward Riccio; Executive Committee, John Belding, Richard Clapp, and James MacDonald. In the athletic world, even as Juniors, the now-famous names of "Sonny" Sheehan, "Bill" Prendergast, "Red" Gough, "Red" Daughters, "Juggio" Piantedosi, and "Hissy" Ford shone in all branches of sports.

The Middler is a neglected creature, rather quiet and unassuming. We were normal in this respect, except for the fact that we were glorified by having one of our number, "Tommy" Gough, football captain, rather an unusual distinction for a mere Middler. Our class officers that year were James Thurber, President; Thomas Gough, Vice President; Bernice O'Kane, Secretary; Edward Riccio, Treasurer; and Joseph Golden, Sue Reilly, and Marjorie Woodland, Executive Committee. Our chief activity as Middlers was producing the play, "Dulcy," which, though not a financial success, was indeed a dramatic triumph. Louise Mooney, premiere actress of our class, was outstanding in the title role.

It was last September that we came into our own, for we returned to school bearing the dignified title of Seniors. Not a little of the satisfaction of this year has been the glory of our position, for we have enjoyed the special privileges of looking as bored as possible on all occasions, of smiling condescendingly on the lower classmen, and of exerting our authority on all sides. The exalted thrones of the class officers have been occupied by Charles English, President; Dick Kelley, Vice-President; Bernice O'Kane, Secretary; George Dunbar, Treasurer; and Barbara Doe, Louise Mooney, Fred Gorgone, Executive Committee. The depression has played a large part in our lives as Seniors, but our senior play, "Penrod," was presented to a large and appreciative audience and was a financial success. "Penrod" was a real hit in its own right, and was said to have been the best play ever given by a senior class. Another of our traditions, "Freak Day", was one long laugh, a real antidote for anyone's blues.

A wistful expression was often observed on usually haughty senior countenances as the end of the year approached. Each day was being counted, each happy little incident hoarded away to be stored as a treasure in someone's memory. Small troubles and annoyances experienced during the past three years were crowded out by the joys which so outweighed them.

As this is being written, those two jolly good times, the Prom and the Banquet are yet to be celebrated. Then there will be Graduation, that sad-happy time when we realize that never again will we see all these familiar faces together, but when we shall remember the training we have been privileged to receive, square our shoulders, and march forward eagerly to assume our share of the heavy responsibilities of a troubled world and to make the greatest possible success of our lives.

BERNICE O'KANE,

Secretary.

Athletics

HOCKEY

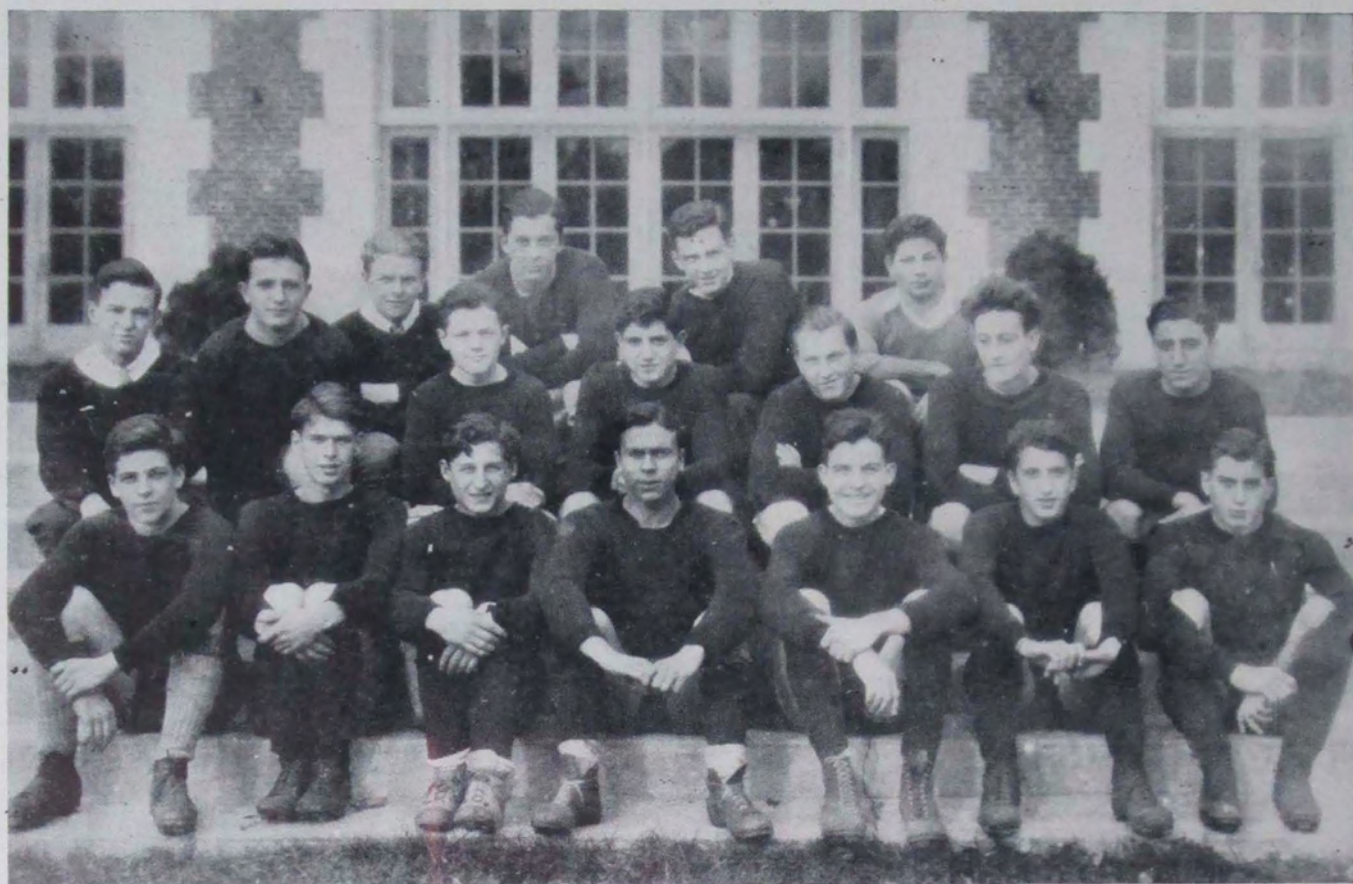

The 1933 hockey team had a very successful season, and finished well up in its league. It won five games, tied two, and lost three, two of these by a one point margin. This year, for the first time, the games were played in the Boston Arena; consequently many students attended, and enthusiasm ran high. Mr. Kenney and the players worked diligently and succeeded in selling more than 700 tickets.

Captain "Red" Daughters and captain-elect "Eddie" Reid were picked to play for the Bay State All Star team against Providence. Reid scored one of the four points of this tie game with a miraculous shot during the fourth period. The outlook for next year is very bright as only about half of the squad are Seniors. The first team consisted of Robert Lawson, "Red" Daughters, "Ed" Reid, forward line; "Red" Egan and "Ed" Martin, defense; Hector Osmond, goalie. The substitutes were Woodland, Wardwell, Guidrey, Berringer, Simmons, Jewett, "Ray" Martin, and Curry.

The games with their scores were as follows:

Watertown—4 . . . St. Mary's—0
 Watertown—2 . . . Quincy—3

SOCCKER

The soccer team has had its most successful season since its introduction at Watertown High by Coach Craig. More boys reported for practice this year than in any previous year.

During the regulation season the boys played twelve games which resulted in eleven victories and one tie. With a record such as this, the team was recognized as the Greater Boston champions. The United States Soccer-Football Association was about to present the state championship cup to New Bedford Vocational School when Coach Craig was urged to pit his boys against the last year's champions. Although the team had not played for six weeks, the season ending at Thanksgiving, Mr. Craig finally consented to a game. Watertown traveled to New Bedford and, under extremely unfavorable conditions, lost the game by a wide margin. Next year seven first team men will return to try once more for an equally successful season.

The following received letters: Carman DeGiso, Lawrence Wardwell, Gordon Gillespie, Pizant Arslanian, Hector Osmond, John Ovoian, Lloyd Peacock, "Tony" Mantenuto, Melvin Barker, Stanley Werren, Ralph Forte, Edward Zacheus, Fred Leary, Harry Diliberto, Bruno Arone, and Donald Thurber.

Their record:

FIELD HOCKEY

The field hockey teams of the Watertown High School, for the season 1932-33, were composed of 30 members drawn from the two classes. The junior team was drawn from about 25 candidates.

The teams were handicapped in their games this season by high winds, rain, and soggy fields, yet usually played a spirited game despite these adverse conditions.

The varsity team started by tying the undefeated Belmont team in a close and exciting contest with the final score 1-1. Waltham, the next opponent, was easily disposed of by the score of 3-0. The third game was played with Winchester and was undoubtedly the closest and most exciting game of the season, the play seesawing from end to end, with Winchester finally copping the honors by a score of 1-0. In the game with Newton, the previous score was reversed, Watertown winning 1-0. The final game was lost to Wellesley, in that town, on a very cold day, by a score of 3-0.

The field hockey season was closed with the annual clash between the Seniors and Juniors for the school championship. The Seniors were victorious against both Middlers and Juniors by the score of 1-0 in each contest.

The following girls were the recipients of the 1933 numerals: "Tillie" Caruso, Virginia Freethy, Ruth DeNoyer, Victoria Derderian, Manager, Marie Linehan, Rowena Löwney, Doris Mann, Edith Gaskin, Margaret McNamara, Christine Hillers, Elizabeth Wolohojian, Faustine Busconi, and Madge Howarth, Captain.

At the annual hockey banquet, Frances Cerqua, very modest and speedy center forward, was chosen captain for this coming year, and Sarah Joseph, able right half-back, was named manager.

FOOTBALL

The football team of 1932 was the most successful of the three teams that have represented Watertown High during the high school career of the present senior class. Although ten lettermen returned, Coach Ward had to instil confidence into a team which, in previous years, had been consistently beaten. Led by Captain "Jug" Piantedosi, the team played a hard schedule, emerging victor in four contests, losing three, and tying two.

The season was opened at Norwood with a 2 to 0 defeat in a close struggle with a far heavier team. A decisive win over Gloucester was then followed by an uphill victory over Melrose. Wins over Dedham and Winthrop were combined, in the next four games, with a tie with the strong Wakefield team and a defeat at the hands of Waltham. By playing two games on one Saturday, the team lost its opportunity to grasp the Mystic Valley crown. Faced with a conflicting schedule, Coach Ward was forced to send a third team to Arlington to play the league champions.

After losing a poorly played contest to Woburn, the team climaxed the season by tying the undefeated Belmont team on Thanksgiving. Although the surprised Belmont team made the first score, a score in which the officials were admittedly at fault, the passing of Prendergast to Daughters and Piantedosi brought the tying tally, shortly before the game ended.

The stars this season were "Biffer" Prendergast, brilliant quarterback, "Red" Daughters, high scoring end, and "Jug" Piantedosi, hard working back. The other two backs, Hiakie Boudakian and "Red" Gough were consistent line plungers and good defensive backs. The line, composed of "Sonny" Sheehan, "Vinnie" Sansone, "Fred" Hertach, "Dick" Clapp, "Billy" Milton, and "Jocko" Ananian, played steadily on the defence, especially when forced back to their goal line.

Other letter men were Androski, Ford, English, Riccio, Keating, Lavrakas, and LeBlanc.

"Vinnie" Sansone and Jack Ananian are co-captains of next year's team.

BOYS' BASKETBALL

Under the leadership of Captain "Jim" Sheehan, the team started the season by trouncing the alumni, 19-13. Prendergast and Ford, as the forwards, demonstrated their scoring ability, while Sheehan and Gough contributed the fine defensive work that they showed all season. The centers, Zacheus and Carbone, experienced the handicap that followed them all year in getting the jump. Though aggressive and fine passers, they lacked the necessary height to cope with their rangier opponents.

After this initial victory, the performances of the team were spotty. Occasionally, they displayed speed and skill. At other times, however, they lapsed into mediocrity. Playing a stiff schedule, they generally found their opponents much superior in height and weight. Although they possessed the battling spirit of all of Coach Ward's teams, they lost bitterly fought games to the big teams from such towns as Brockton, Chelsea, and Belmont. The speed and fire of the games drew consistently large crowds to the contests.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

On December 22, the Watertown High girls' basketball team commenced the season's activities by being defeated, in an exciting battle with the Alumnae by the score of 13 to 9. In this contest, there was only one member of the starting lineup who was a regular member of last year's varsity team.

Under the coaching of Miss Biggane, however, the team went forward and enjoyed a very successful season. The team was captained by Virginia Freethy and managed by Marie Linehan. The varsity lineup for this year was as follows: Virginia Freethy, captain, Marie Linehan, manager, centers; Ruth DeNoyer, Claire Murdock, Catherine Juliano, forwards; Anna Hillier, Madge Howarth, guards.

The captain-elect for next season is Catherine Juliano, and the manager-elect is Claire Murdock. Both of these girls are speedy forwards.

The record of the games:

INDOOR TRACK

Coached by Mr. O'Brien, the indoor track team has enjoyed a successful season despite the handicap suffered from the lack of a board track on which to practice. Practice sessions were consequently conducted in the corridors. However, plans for a board track for next year are being formulated.

The highlight of the season has been the spectacular running of "Bobby" Gleason in the 600 yard run. After placing third at the Northeastern Interscholastics and second at the Andover Meet, "Bob" glided to a decisive win at the State Meet in 1 min. 17 $\frac{3}{5}$ seconds smashing both the Class A and Class B records. He has also been outstanding in the hurdles and 1000 yard run.

The work of the relay team has likewise been exceptionally fine. Comprised of "Billy" Milton, "Al" Fiske, John Rote and "Bobby" Gleason, the team placed second at the B. A. A. Schoolboy Meet, second at Andover, and obtained a tie for third at the State Meet.

Other consistent point scorers have been "Al" Fiske in the high jump and 600, Captain "Dick" Clapp in the 1000, John Mangold in the dash and hurdles, John Rote, "Billy" Milton, and Donald Thurber in the 300, John Koumjian and "Sonny" Sheehan in the shot put, "Tom" Kingsley in the standing broad jump, and "Bill" Fiske in the high jump. Fred Gorgone has managed the team.

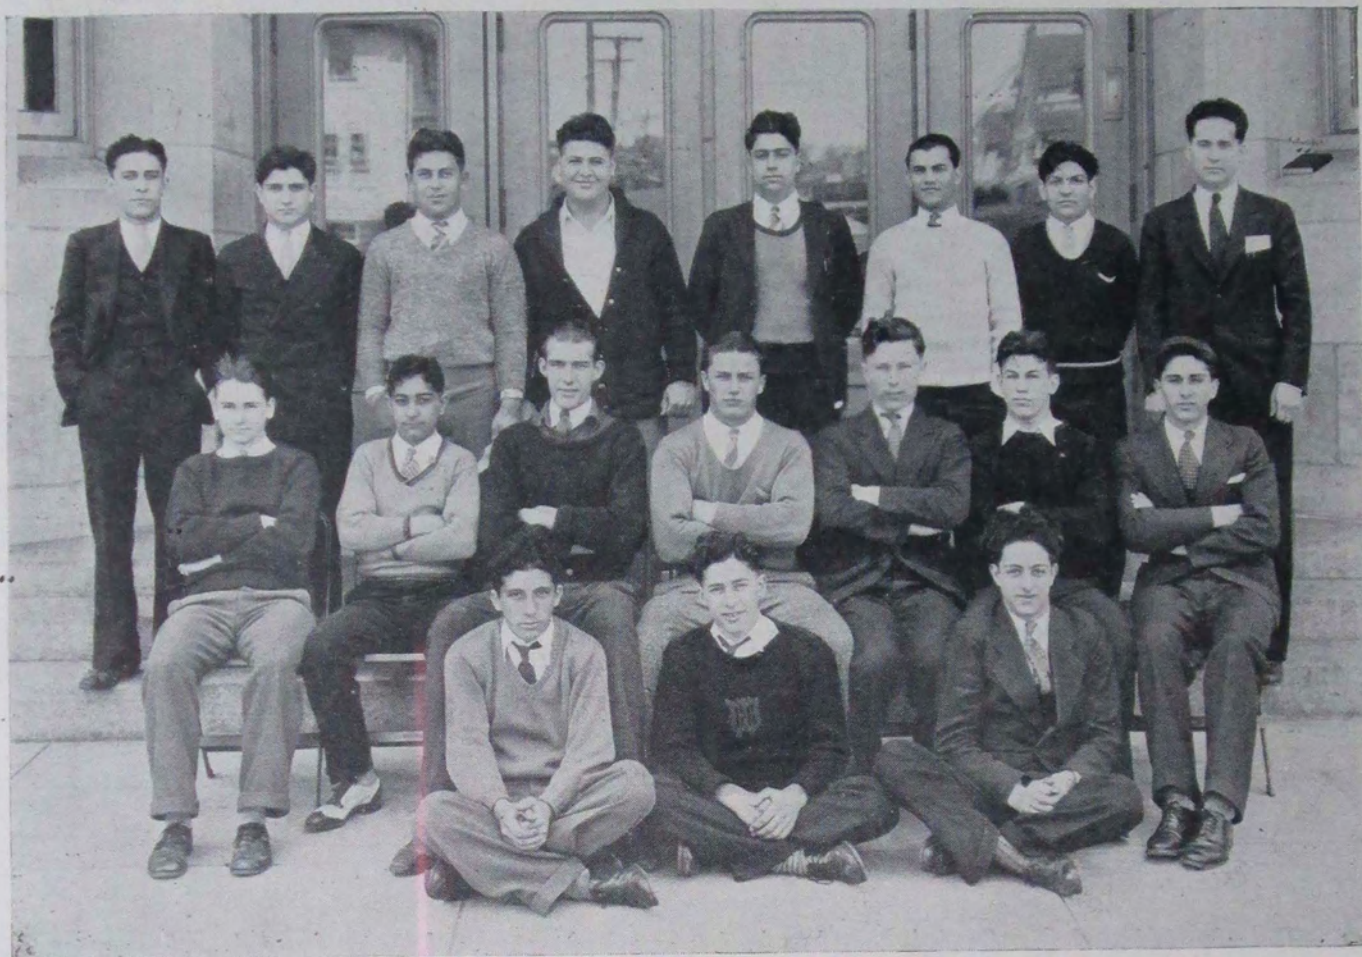

The prospects for next year's team are very promising.

A complete summary of the meets follows:

Watertown—34 $\frac{1}{2}$	Browne and Nichols—33 $\frac{1}{2}$	Watertown—12	Lynn Classical—56
Watertown—37 $\frac{1}{3}$	Country Day School—25 $\frac{2}{3}$	Watertown—40 $\frac{2}{3}$	Somerville—36 $\frac{1}{3}$

Points scored at Interscholastic Meets:

Northeastern Interscholastics—2 points.
 Andover Interscholastics—7 points for sixth place.
 State Meet—7 $\frac{1}{2}$ points for a tie for fifth place

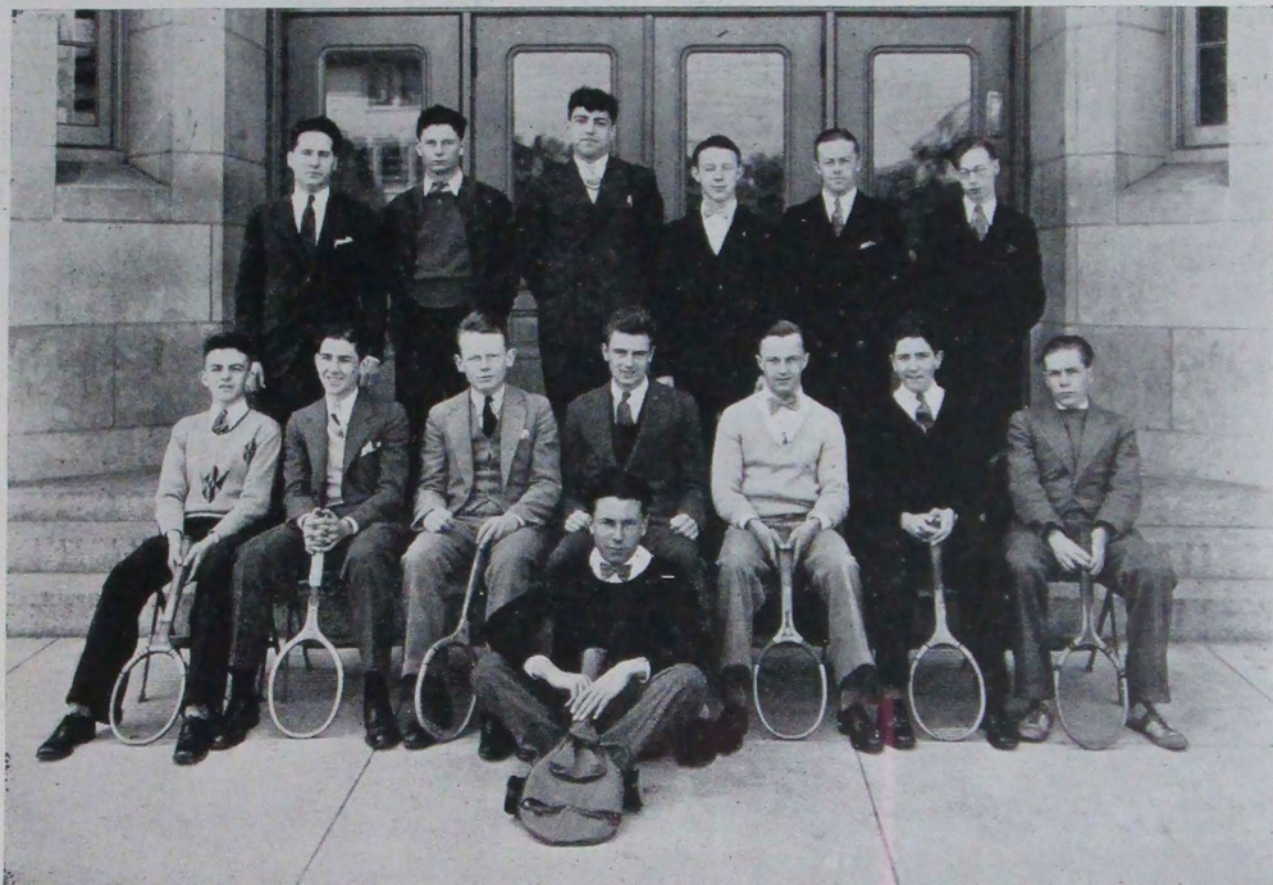

WRESTLING

Under the supervision of Mr. Grimes and his assistant, "Pop" Myers, our wrestling team has had a good season. The home matches were attended by many students, and all delighted in the peppy, good-natured encounters.

Our school joined a new league this year and played against the teams of Weymouth, North Quincy, Needham, Quincy High, Tufts Freshmen, Harvard Freshmen, Browne and Nichols, and Mitchell Private Academy.

The team was ably managed by John Najarian.

BOYS' TENNIS

Mr. Kenney, coach of last year's tennis team, because of a conflicting program, has been compelled to turn over the reins to Mr. Grimes. Mr. Grimes will, therefore, coach this year for the first time. George Dunbar, in his capacity of captain-manager, will assist him.

Among the candidates who are expected to be outstanding are John Koumjian, George Dunbar, "Phil" Watts, George Singiser, Fred Gorgone, George Waite, Melvin Aronson, and Vernon Jewett. A new team will have to be built up this year as the mainstays of last year's group have been lost by graduation.

The team is entered, as it was last year, in the Suburban League. The schedule calls for two games with each of the following teams:

Lexington, Winthrop, Winchester, Belmont, and Melrose.

Extra games will probably be arranged with other schools to provide the newer members of the team with an opportunity for gaining experience.

GIRLS' TENNIS

Practice for the girls' tennis team has been conducted regularly in the gym in anticipation of outside work on the Victory Field courts.

As only two of the aspirants have ever competed in school games, an inexperienced group will have to be moulded into a varsity team. However, with diligent practice, Miss Biggane intends to build up a team in order to complete successfully the schedule which is now being arranged.

The following girls have been practising in the gym: Virginia Freethy, Alice Dedeian, Celia Madanian, Audrey Whitehead, Emma Bishop, Louise Hedlund, Claire Murdock, Madge Howarth, Catherine Juliano, Edith Haines, Jean Gabineau, Mildred Wetsell, Marie Linehan, and Gladys Knapp.

GOLF

Under the leadership of Leo Martin, the state caddy champion, whose 73 is the lowest score made by any caddy in the country, our 1933 golf season will undoubtedly be the best ever enjoyed by a Watertown High team.

All members of the team are veterans. Ranking close behind Leo comes his brother, Ed Martin, who plays even steadier golf than Leo. Robert Sanford, Richard Minasian, Virgil Curry, and Robert MacCurdy who comprise the rest of the squad, are all very adept players, eager to dislodge the Martins from their thrones. The members of the squad are faithful workers and try earnestly to grasp the finer points of golf from their instructor, Mr. Keene, who is himself an ardent golfer.

The schedule consists of two games with each of the following schools:

Belmont, Waltham, Newton, Exeter Academy, Arlington, and Norwood.

OUTDOOR TRACK

The outdoor track squad intends to start practising in the early part of April on the cinder track at Victory Field. Mr. O'Brien will continue from the indoor season in the position of coach. Plans are being formulated for the improvement of the track, which is badly in need of repair.

An inter-class meet, with a novice meet as an added feature, will be held about the middle of April between the Juniors, Middlers, and Seniors in the expectation of producing some new talent. The following competitors are expected to be the leading contenders for individual honors: Kingsley and Mearls in the 100 yard dash, Rote and Milton in the 220, "Al" Fiske in the 440 yard dash, Clapp and Thurber in the half-mile, Gleason in the mile, "Al" Fiske and Mearls in the high jump, Bussey and Aberle in the running broad jump, and Sheehan and Koumjian in the shot put. Fred Gorgone will again be manager.

Meets are anticipated with Woburn, Somerville, Belmont, Quincy, Dedham, and Wellesley. In addition to these dual meets the team will enter the State Meet at the Harvard Stadium. Mr. O'Brien may also send a group to compete at the University of New Hampshire Interscholastics, the Fitchburg Relays, and the Brown Interscholastics. The Mystic Valley Meet, which the team had hoped to enter, will not be sponsored this year.

BASEBALL

The 1933 baseball season officially began March 1, when the battery candidates began to work out regularly in the gym. In a few weeks, with the arrival of good weather, sixty players, the largest squad in Watertown High's baseball history, reported to Coach Ward at Victory Field. The group, comprised mostly of seniors, contains plenty of experienced men and several promising newcomers.

According to Mr. Ward, anyone who can hit is assured of a position on his team. Visitors to Victory Field this spring can thus feel sure of witnessing wide-open games.

The starting lineup, based on previous experience of the players, may be as follows: Toscano and Boudakian, pitchers; Gough, catcher; Bond, first base; Lavrakas, second base; Captain Daughters, shortstop; Prendergast, third base; and Zacheus, Ford, Guidrey, and Igoe as outfielders. Berringer, Walker, and Ananian are utility infielders, while Guidrey will be also employed as a relief catcher. Other pitching hopefuls are Barker, Fitzgerald, Howe, and Lupo. Any one of these boys may oust a veteran player with Coach Ward's new offensive policy in operation. Frank Carbone will occupy the manager's berth for the 1933 season.

An innovation this year will be Wednesday evening twilight games. These contests ought to be very popular.

Playing the following representative schedule, the team is out to seek Mystic Valley and other honors.
