NOTICE TO APPLICANTS AND HOLDERS OF CONCEALED FIREARM PERMITS

A concealed firearm permit issued by a Maine issuing authority does not authorize you to possess or discharge firearms in locations within the State of Maine where such possession or discharge is prohibited. The permit does not authorize you to possess or use firearms in violation of applicable federal laws or the laws of other states. Such laws may prohibit possession or use in circumstances where Maine law does not. You have an obligation to confirm that your possession and use of firearms is lawful pursuant to Maine law, federal law, and the laws of any other jurisdiction in which you intend to possess a firearm. Although you are encouraged to contact the Maine State Police or your issuing authority with permit questions, the State Police, municipal issuing authorities, and the Office of the Attorney General cannot provide legal advice or interpretations of Maine law to private citizens. If you need legal advice, you should consult a qualified private attorney concerning your specific situation.

2. Notice to issuing authority. The law enforcement officer who has probable cause to require chemical testing shall promptly notify the issuing authority, in writing, of the permit holder's refusal and shall return the surrendered permit to the issuing authority.

charge or civil violation is pending, or by the Secretary of State if a hearing is held pursuant to Title 29-A, section 2521, 2522 or 2523, that the law enforcement officer did not have probable cause to require the permit holder to submit to chemical testing.
